Penelope & The Beauty Bar

steadycatalog I went for my first ever eyelash extension appointment yesterday thanks to the lovely team at @penelopeandthebeautybar who hosted me. It was such an interesting experience having never done this before. Seeing all the eyelash lengths and curls was a bit overwhelming at first. Instead of jumping right in to pick a length and curl type, I just described what I would be doing in the next two weeks and how I hoped the lashes would fit into this lifestyle. In just under an hour, 120-140 lashes were added, one by one, to my own lashes. It is pretty crazy to think how a small piece of silk can make such a dramatic difference!! .
