DEVVIO APPOINTS TOP US TECH VC RAY QUINTANA AS ITS GLOBAL PRESIDENT

Top tier strategic business leader adds increased reach and experience to the powerhouse team

Albuquerque, New Mexico USA – (August 23, 2018) – Devvio has named Ray Quintana as its new company President to support Devvio’s ambition to enable the world’s infrastructure for transferring value. Ray joins Devvio from Cottonwood Technology Fund, a global early stage venture capital fund.

Preqin UK, a recognized leader in tracking private equity fund performance, lists Cottonwood as one of the top performing early stage VC funds in the world. Cottonwood’s investment strategy focuses on international growth from the beginning and recruiting the resources needed for success.

Mr. Quintana brings more than 20 years of experience in creating, building, and growing global technology firms. He’s served in senior strategy and corporate development roles at leading Fortune 500 companies like Texas Instruments and Bosch. Mr. Quintana spearheaded competency-driven global corporate strategy, managed corporate ventures, and oversaw the expansion of international presence, new products and portfolios.

His role as President at Devvio will be to shape and enhance the company’s ambitious growth plans in a number of ways including securing key strategic partnerships, establishing a fund for Devvio’s ecosystem, and guiding high-performing product and portfolio innovations. With Mr. Quintana’s high level of industry experience, he will help Devvio to capture major market opportunities with the support of the Devvio team and product offerings.

Mr. Quintana commented: “In my decades of venture capital and corporate development experience with Fortune 500 companies, I have never seen a company with the potential to transform the global economy like Devvio. The technical provenance, elite team and blockchain-enabled business models across a range of industrial landscapes makes this one of the most compelling opportunities in the world and I am excited to be part of the team.”

Tom Anderson, CEO of Devvio said of Ray joining the Devvio: “We’re absolutely thrilled to have Ray join the team. His decades of experience partnering with the world’s most impressive technology companies will be significant in establishing our position as a leading blockchain company, particularly in the enterprise space. Ray is one of those unique individuals that deeply understands both technology and business, and is even more rare in the successes he has had and the relationships he has built over time. Any team would be lucky to have Ray join them, and his spirit and personality fits so well with Devvio’s culture, ambitions, and values, that it has been a perfect fit across the board.”
