Personal information we collect

When you visit the Site, we automatically collect certain information about your device, including information about your web browser, IP address, time zone, and some of the cookies that are installed on your device. Additionally, as you browse the Site, we collect information about the individual web pages, what websites or search terms referred you to the Site, and information about how you interact with the Site.

How we collect personal information

We collect personal information using the following technologies;

- Cookies - data files that are placed on your device or computer and often include an anonymous unique identifier.
- Log Files - track actions occurring on the Site, and collect data including your IP address, browser type, Internet service provider, referring/exit pages, and date/time stamps.
- Web beacons, tags and pixels - electronic files used to record information about how you browse the Site.
- Google Analytics - utilised too to track behaviour on the Site, including pages visited, actions taken and websites you came from.

Additionally when you make a donation or purchase through the Site, we collect certain information from you, including your name, address, payment information (including credit card numbers, payment provider information, email address, and phone number.

How do we use this information

We use the information that we collect generally to fulfil any donations or purchases through the Site. Additionally, we use this information to:

- Communicate with you;
- Screen our orders for potential risk or fraud; and

We use this information that we collect to help us screen for potential risk and fraud (in particular, your IP address), and more generally to improve and optimize our Site (for example, by generating analytics about how our customers browse and interact with the Site.

Do we disclose any information to outside parties?

Modern organisations often use third parties to help them host their applications, communicate with customers, power their emails etc. We partner with third parties to provide these services. For example, we use:

- Donorbox to power our online donations.
- Shopify for product sales.
- Mailchimp for email marketing and outreach.
- Typeform for visitor and patron engagement.

- PayPal, Apple Pay, Google Pay and Stripe as payment providers.
- Google Analytics to help us understand how our Site is used.
- Microsoft Office 365 as our cloud and email provider.

When we do use these services, sometimes it is necessary for us to share your data with them in order to get these services to work well. Your data is shared only when strictly necessary

Tallaght University Hospital Foundation may transfer your personal data outside the EEA. If it does so, this may occur under the protections of binding corporate rules (BCR's) that have been approved by a supervisory authority, but will otherwise only take place where appropriate standards and safeguards are in place.

Finally, we may also share your information to comply with applicable laws and regulations, to respond to a subpoena, search warrant or other lawful request for information we receive, or to otherwise protect our rights.

How we protect your information

We use a variety of security measures to securely process and keep your personal information safe when you interact with our website.

We use Shopify Inc. as our third party payment provider for product sales. It performs annual audits to ensure its handling of your credit card information aligns with industry guidelines. Shopify Inc. is certified as a PCI DSS Level 1 compliant service provider, which is the highest level of compliance available, and its platform is audited annually by a third-party qualified security assessor.

We use Donorbox as our third party payment provider for donations. Donorbox uses Stripe's secure token mechanism, therefore Donorbox does not hold any records of the donor's card number in their database. Donorbox is PCI compliant under "PCI validation: SAQ A".

Mailchimp is our third party provider for email marketing and outreach. They take appropriate and reasonable technical and organisational measures to protect Personal Information from loss, misuse, unauthorised access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction, taking into account the risks involved in the processing and the nature of the Personal Information.

Typeform is our third party provider for visitor and patron engagement. Once your information is entered in Typeform's systems, it's secured with multiple levels of encryption and access controls. Typeform encrypt your data in-transit using secure TLS cryptographic protocols (currently TLS 1.0, 1.1 and 1.2 supported).

TUHF takes and will continue to take all reasonable steps (which includes relevant technical and organisational measures) to guarantee the safety of the data you provide to us and we will only use the data for the purpose intended.

However, the nature of the internet is such that we cannot guarantee or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us via the Internet will be 100% secure.

Cookies

We use cookies. Unless you adjust your browser settings to refuse cookies, we (and these third parties) will issue cookies when you interact with us. These may be 'session' cookies, meaning they delete themselves when you leave our website, or 'persistent' cookies which do not delete themselves and help us recognise you when you return so we can provide a tailored service.

How can I block Cookies?

You can block cookies by activating a setting on your browser allowing you to refuse the setting of cookies. You can also delete cookies through your browser settings. If you use your browser settings to disable, reject, or block cookies (including essential cookies), certain parts of our website will not function fully. In some cases, our website may not be accessible at all. Please note that where third parties use cookies we have no control over how those third parties use those cookies

If we transfer personal data to a third party or outside of the EU we as the data controllers will ensure the recipient (processor or other controller) has provided the appropriate safeguards based on an equivalent level of security as adopted for transfers of data within the EU and on condition that enforceable data subject rights and effective legal remedies for you the data subject are available.

TUHF will only share your data with third parties where there is a compelling reason to do so and only shares personal data with third parties on rare occasions. In the unlikely event that we will share your data with a third party we will always inform you at the beginning of the engagement except where TUHF are duty bound to disclose or share your personal data in order to comply with statutory and / or legal obligations.

Anonymised visitor information may be provided to other parties for marketing, advertising, or other uses. For example, we may disclose the total number of visits to our website.

You control your information

You have the right to obtain a copy of your personal data in an easily accessible format. In certain circumstances, you also have the right to object to the processing of your personal data, to request the amendment or deletion of your personal data and to withdraw your consent to the processing of your personal data (where we are relying on consent as the legal basis for processing your personal data).

Without prejudice to any other rights you may have, you may file a complaint with the Data Protection Commission.

If you would like to exercise any of your rights or you have any questions about your rights please email us at dataprotection@tuhf.ie. Alternatively, you can contact us by telephone or post using the contact details available below.

If you would like to obtain a copy of your personal data, you can do this by submitting a subject access request (SAR) for the personal information that TUHF holds about you, which we are required to provide under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) unless an exemption applies.

You can make this request using our request form. See Appendix 1 or TUHF Subject Access Request document.

We will provide the following information:

- The purpose of the processing of your personal data;
- What kind of personal data is stored;
- Where this data is stored;
- How long your data is stored; and
- A copy of the personal data undergoing processing.

Your request will usually be completed within one month of receipt.

Online Privacy Policy only

This online Privacy Policy applies only to information collected through our website and not to information collected by TUHF by other means.

Changes to our Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to make changes to our Privacy Policy at any time without prior consultation; these changes will be posted on this page together with the Privacy Policy revision date.

Appendix 1

Tallaght University Hospital Foundation (“TUHF”) Data Subject Access Request

TUHF is committed to upholding the rights of individuals and has processes in place for providing individuals’ access to their personal information. A subject access request (SAR) is a request for access to the personal information that TUHF holds about you, which we are required to provide under the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) unless an exemption applies.

You have the right to ask us supplementary information about:

- the categories of data we’re processing
- the purposes of data processing
- the categories of third parties to whom the data may be disclosed
- how long the data will be stored (or the criteria used to determine that period)
- your other rights regarding our use of your data

TUHF endeavour to fulfil all Subject Access Requests within the one month time frame as set out in the GDPR unless doing so would adversely affect the rights and freedoms of other (e.g. another person’s confidentiality or intellectual property rights). Should there be a compelling reason to extend this period TUHF will communicate this extension, with detailed reasoning for the extension, to the Data Subject.

What’s involved?

Please note that we require you to provide at least one form of identification in order to verify the identity of the data subject making the request. Once received, we will verify the identity of the person making the request and acknowledge receipt of the request by email or by post.

If you have provided enough information in your request in order to enable us to identify information relating to you, we will gather and review all information held by TUHF relating to you. If we do not have enough information to locate your records, we may contact you for further details.

Once we have collated all the personal information held about you, we will send a hardcopy of this or in an electronic format by email to you.

We aim to complete all access requests without undue delay and, in any event, within one month of receipt of the request.

Please note: TUHF stores the personal data processed by it only for as long as necessary for the purposes for which it was collected or as long as required by law.

Completed forms can be sent to:

Data Protection Officer,
Tallaght University Hospital Foundation,
Tallaght University Hospital,
Tallaght,
Dublin 24

If you are dissatisfied with our response, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Commission.
