

NEVA TABLE

M ARTISAN
D REGULAR COMPANY

The Bloop collection of low tables is the result of the decomposition of the classic circular table with a central leg turned on a lathe. By shifting the axis of rotation of the three basic elements of this kind of table (base, leg and top) an unconventional spatial composition is achieved, and with the use of 5-axis technology all the functionality and stability of a use object is retained. A composition of several tables in a space in two different heights provides associations with the poetics of the ripples that spread regularly over the surface of water after a pebble has been cast in.
