

TRIK

M ECHTSTAHL
D JOJORAMA

For the home accessories »Tik, Trik and Trak«, design studio »jojorama« have taken useful everyday objects and reinterpreted them for Echtstahl. Colourful felt combines with subtle shapes and high-quality processed stainless steel – the results are charming objects that can be implemented in a variety of living concepts.

»Trik« is a modular newspaper rack that can be expanded as required. The individual modules can easily be fitted together manually without the need for any additional tools. »Trik« is a modern alternative for presenting and storing magazines – be it in a private home setting or in doctors' surgeries, hotels etc.
