M OBJEKTE UNSERER TAGE
D OBJEKTE UNSERER TAGE

The thoughts come to rest. The body finds time to heal. Well-being and serenity are the focus of the KAYA Bed. The construction is reduced to the essentials, functional and timeless. KAYA is based on the philosophy of classic futon beds of restful sleep through calm simplicity and the connection to earth and nature. The woods used to come from sustainable forestry in Germany and Austria. They give KAYA a warm and honest character. The integrated slatted frame is made of solid ash wood and is not only very stable but also offers natural elasticity, which contributes to the outstanding comfort of KAYA. The precise interlocking of the slatted frame and bed frame is handcrafted to create ideal ventilation. The mattress is only a few centimeters embedded, which underlines the pure character of the bed. This means that KAYA is pleasantly soft on the edges. Honest to its function and materials - simple and clear, KAYA is a place of retreat to find inner peace.
