EFFORTLESS YET BOLD WEDEKIND TABLE & BENCH

We connect memories with a table - hilarious game nights, a successful project or romantic candlelit dinners. The WEDEKIND Table will host the most memorable and beautiful stories.

The almost floating tabletop complements the classic design language with a bold reference to the present. WEDEKIND radiates an effortless lightness and emphasizes the natural beauty of the oak wood from sustainable forestry over a length of up to 2.80 meters. On the other hand, powerful and shaping frames provide a balanced opposite pole.

The WEDEKIND Table is a timeless, honest object that can withdraw without becoming casual. An object of precision craftsmanship and carpentry, radically constructed on a distinct design. Characterized by the interplay of floating lightness and powerful presence.

The design language of the Bench is based on the family's WEDEKIND Table. The almost floating staged seat is characteristic of the design and radiates an effortless lightness. The natural beauty of the sustainably certified oak wood makes the WEDEKIND Bench a timeless object of precision craftsmanship and artful carpentry.
