D Alexander Seifried, 2007/2008

A modern redesign of the folding table archetype had long been overdue. For interior and exterior use. This table stands out by precision craftsmanship and premium quality. Its clear form mirrors the product's simplicity and functionality. The table can be used everywhere, it is stable, easy to move around and takes up little storage space when folded. An optional bottom shelf provides storage for magazines and books. Available in many great colours ranging from charcoal to orange and ice green
