Tami table from larch wood

Inspired by the evenly rising and falling tones of rhythmical structures that unite human individuals into a common collective identity, the Tami Dining Collection from naturally oiled larch or oak wood creates a place to gather, share and trust.

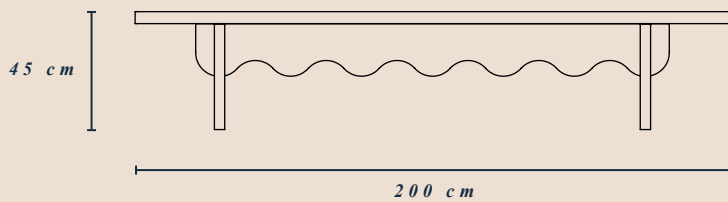

Carefully handcrafted by our in-house carpenter and exclusively made to order, the Tami Dining Collection consists of a high-quality table and optionally two benches that will bring families together for generations to come, owing to its simple and durable construction.
