

Thank you for purchasing from A Journey Through Learning. We hope that you enjoy our copy work entitled America's Historical Landmarks. Getting started is easy!

First, take the time to look through your copy work book.

America's Historical Landmarks Copy Work is full of interesting information about many of the famous monuments, statues, and buildings in the United States. Your child will copy interesting snippets about such things as the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Wall, The White House, The Statue of Liberty, The Library of Congress, Mt. Rushmore, Crazy Horse, Arlington Cemetery and much more while at the same time reinforcing spelling, grammar, and punctuation skills.

Copy work is important because it develops a love for reading, writing, and learning. When completed, your child will have a wonderful running diary in his own handwriting of some of the most recognizable sites in our country.

We hope you and your child are blessed by this study! Please check our website frequently for new products!
www.ajourneythroughlearning.com

Thanks again,
Paula Winget
Nancy Fileccia

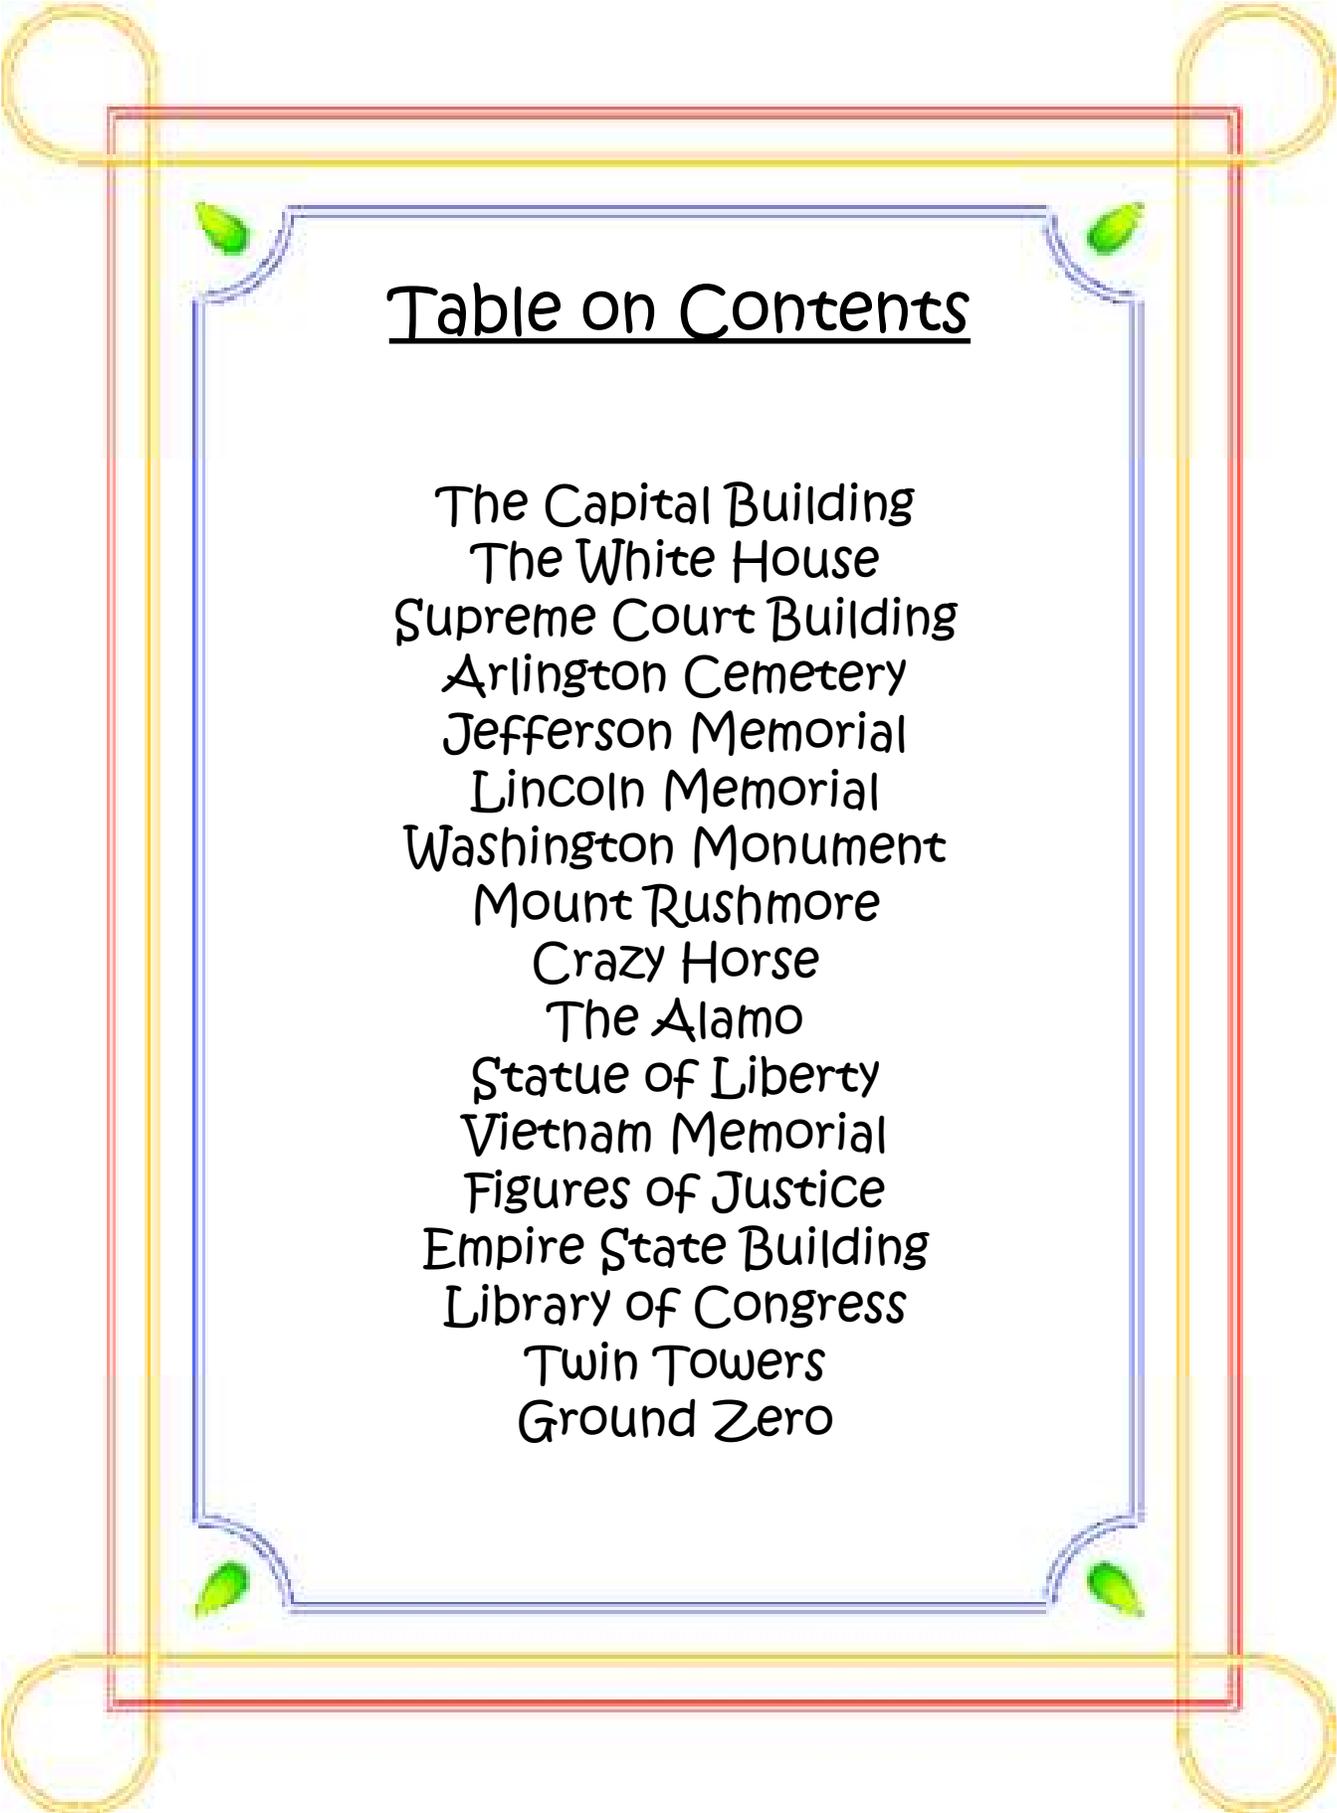

Table on Contents

The Capital Building
The White House
Supreme Court Building
Arlington Cemetery
Jefferson Memorial
Lincoln Memorial
Washington Monument
Mount Rushmore
Crazy Horse
The Alamo
Statue of Liberty
Vietnam Memorial
Figures of Justice
Empire State Building
Library of Congress
Twin Towers
Ground Zero

Located at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington D. C., the White House has been the official residence of all the presidents of the United States with the exception of George Washington.

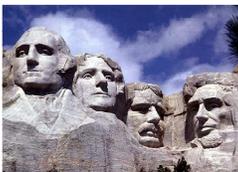

Sample

Washington D.C. is the only city in the nation that is not part of any state. It is on a section of land own by the Federal Government and called The District of Columbia.

In the Black Hills of South Dakota stands the 60 foot high national memorial Mount Rushmore, depicting four great presidents. It was designed as a testament to the growth of the country and its great leaders.

Sample

Mount Rushmore was meant to show the leaders of the United States through it's first 150 years as a nation.