

A gift worth waiting for...

We're sorry your present isn't under the tree, when everyone wanted it to be.
It wasn't ordered last minute,
there was time to spare,
but even Santa's sleigh couldn't magic it there.

Please know that, like elves,
we've all done our best,
if only the posties weren't 'having a rest'!

Trust us,
this present is worth waiting for,
and soon there will be a knock on your door.
It's Christmas,
the season of love and good cheer,
enjoy today,
because your gift will last all year.
