DESIGN TALKS

October 2018 - April 2019

We love any excuse to visit Sir John Soane's Museum and are particularly tempted by this new series of talks in partnership with Luke Irwin. Entitled By Design, it will see leading designers discuss an object that has inspired them in some way – using it to discuss and dissect their own design practise.

Alice Rawsthorn, design writer and critic will be interviewing Martino Gamper on 26 November, David Adjaye on 21 January and Es Devlin on 18 February. Will Gompertz, Arts Editor at the BBC will be talking to Peter Saville on 29 October, Edmund de Waal on 25 March and Olga Polizzi on 29 April. Book now.
