Amy Kent

Amy Kent has collaborated with florist and stylist Willow Crossley to create a collection of hand-knotted rugs in wool and art silk based on the British flowers of the four seasons. Illustrated here is Autumn.

New rugs

COVER selects 16 rugs from recent launches that represent the best in contemporary design worldwide

↙
Fort Street Studio

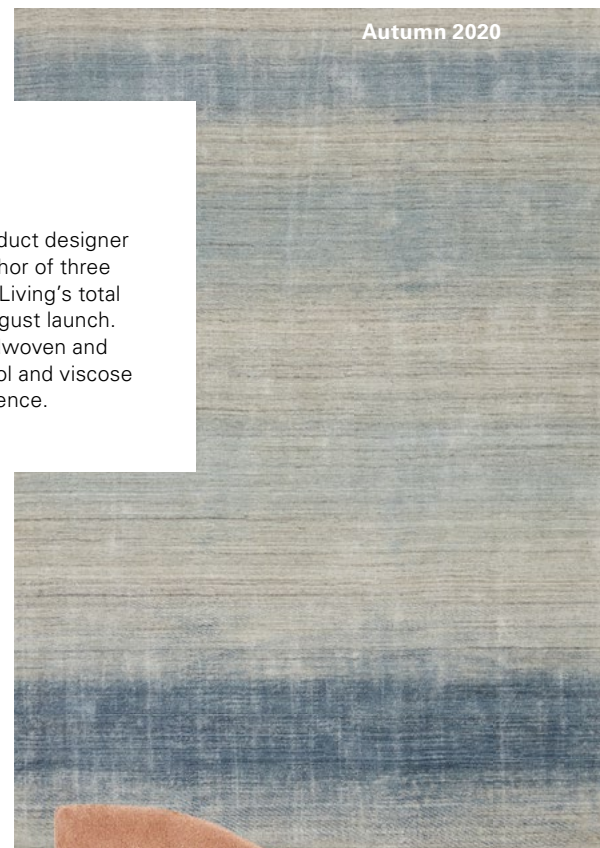

Switch Lilac is a new addition to Fort Street Studio's Thai Silk Collection. The design combines two very different textures, shaggy and flatweave, in one tone. The effect is sculptural.

↙
Luke Irwin

Luke Irwin's rug London Fog is a beautifully subtle ethereal design hand-knotted in wool and silk. It belongs to the Fresco & Nimbus Collection, which in the designer's words 'goes back to the idea of rhythm and flow being the heart of every rug'.

↙
Calle Henzel x A/C.H. Collective

Alta Caletta (81) was designed by Calle Henzel and A/C.H. Collective. The A/C.H. collaboration programme was founded by Asa and Calle Henzel to enable contemporary artists to translate their work into alternate media and reach a wider audience.

Rankin Rugs

Afterparty, a new carpet creation from Rankin Rugs, is pure fun. High-heeled shoes, bottles, disco balls, wine spills and confetti make up the composition. In the words of Amber Rankin, it's 'all about kitsch modern debauchery'. www.rankinrugs.com

Jaipur Rugs

In the paintings that form the basis for his collection with Jaipur Rugs, architect Hiren Patel recreates personal experiences in paint, many of them connected with travel. In this way, each rug represents a moment in time. www.jaipurrugs.com

© Loloey—Sirius—Andromeda

Loloey

Loloey's 2020 collection is Sirius, a line of cosmic extravagance available in hand-knotted, hand-tufted and Axminster qualities. Andromeda (above) belongs to the 'dark' half of the series, featuring ultramarines and purples. www.loloey.com

GAN Rugs

Inspired by Op Art, Spanish designer Patricia Urquiola's new design for GAN, Round Mirage, follows on from her successful Mirage series for the brand. The rug has an intriguing shape, which is the result of overlapping square and circular elements, and is hand-knotted in wool. www.gan-rugs.com

Tsar Carpets

Choudhary Exports

Choudhary has worked with Keith Pillow, the founder of Malta-based architecture and interior design firm Daaa Haus, to create a collection of rugs based on James Vella Clark's paintings. The series is titled Convergence. www.choudharyexports.com

Knots Rugs

The geometric carpet 1920's Shapes forms part of the new Textures collection and is available in high/low flatweave as well as a hand-knotted quality. The composition is 70% wool and 30% silk. www.knotsrugs.co.uk
