GET IN SHAPE

When investing in a new piece of furniture, it's important to ensure it has a timeless shape and will work with any scheme. With that in mind, we love the slick, mid-century form of this Irving writing desk, £595 from Graham & Green. Plus, it has a super handy brass rail underneath that's perfect for storing magazines and books.

Inspiration

Bookshelf

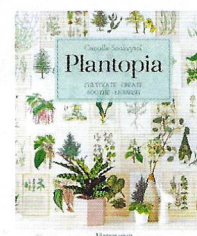

From interior design dilemmas to living happily with houseplants, these seasonal tomes have inspiration covered

Stylist Selina Lake's latest book will have you longing for summer. In Natural Living Style she explores how to curate a rustic and organic home. (£19.99, Ryland Peters & Small)

If you're stuck in an interiors rut (we've all been there...) Joanna Thornhill is here to help. Here she offers solutions to all manner of design quandaries. (£14.99, Laurence King)

The ultimate guide for those mad about houseplants and indoor gardening, Plantopia features plenty of advice and fun projects. (£19.95, Flammarion)

Oh là là

New from rug designer Luke Irwin, these pretty Les Billets-Doux notecards are must-have desk accessories. Meaning 'sweet notes', these cards would make charming invitations, letters or even love notes – and each features a dreamy, feminine illustration by artist Eleanor Hardiman. Priced at £25 per set of 12 cards, the pack is available from Luke Irwin directly, or from an array of other boutiques. We'll be corresponding in style from now on...
