Dear Mr and Mrs Magnus

Greeting from sunny Sumba! It's dry season now in Sumba, so it's hot and sunny but it's very windy. What's the weather like in your country? How are you. I hope you are always healthy. I'm very well its been 2 months since I wrote my previous letter. In this letter, I'd like to share my stories with you.

For the last month we had a big group staying at Sumba Hospitality foundation. They were Japanese, and Indonesian. We prepare dinner for them and I was the waitress. I was really exciting to serve them. They had dinner with our school owner at the beginning I was very happy because there was a baby and some children but I was suprised when our school owner called me to explain the Restaurant concept, but I did it very well. Suddenly, after I explained it my teacher came and asked me to pour wine for the Japanese guy. It made me nervous because it was my first time. They were happy with our service. So, I grateful. I did the service better the previous one.

This week we learned to make future plans. I have made plans for my next term break. I'm going to visit my uncle and I'm going to throw an English class for the children in my village. I'm going to teach my family about cleaning to show them that I didn't waste my time at Sumba Hospitality foundation.

That's all I can share with you now and see you in the next letter.
Thank you very much.

Warm Regards,

Dela.
