PATTERN NOTES
Ready for your next mindless knitting project? The combination of speckled, variegated multi, and solid versions of Bamboo Pop make stockinette stitch stripes fun to work. The anticipation of the next color change makes you just want to keep going. And with 50 different colors in Bamboo Pop, there's a combination for everyone!

Keep all 3 colors attached throughout the project. Carry unused colors up inside the work. When changing to a new color, bring it up and around previous colors to prevent any holes from forming at the join.
