

A minimalist still life composition. On the left, a dark, rounded glass vase holds several stalks of dried, feathery grasses. To its right, a small, modern copper candle holder with two cylindrical sockets sits on a light-colored surface. The background is a wall with a subtle, embossed geometric pattern. A soft shadow of the vase and grasses is cast onto the wall to the right. The word "CARBON" is overlaid in a large, white, sans-serif font in the upper center.
