

Play Mat Shopping

THE ULTIMATE CHECKLIST

Things to keep in mind before making a purchase

- Is it safe from toxins?
- Does the company independently test their products, and is the play mat certified to meet standards and compliance?
- Does the company have a safety standard compliance report available?
- Does the play mat protect my baby from the floor with premium quality, soft foam or fabric material?

What sort of material do I want my child's playmat made from?

Is the play mat practical and functional? Look for:

- Easy to Clean
- Waterproof/Water-Resistant
- Stain Resistant
- Easy to Pack Away
- Is the play mat durable?
- Is the play mat stylish and something I would be proud to have in my home?

How much use will I get out of this play mat?

Questions you can ask a company before purchasing their playmat:

1. What industry standards do you meet in your testing processes?
What age category do you test for?
2. Do you test your products, and comply with children's product regulations of the USA and EU?
3. Which certifications does your product have?
