Merry Christmas

The traditions surrounding our family and Christmas are so meaningful to me! Growing up, we would get dressed and go out for a fancy Christmas Eve dinner. Afterwards, we would head to D.C. to look at the Christmas trees on the Ellipse and the Capitol, finishing our tour at the Woodward and Lothrop decorated windows. We would end the night going to church for their candlelight service.

The candlelight service is something that is still so meaningful to me! Now, the tradition continues with my family. Together with my husband, Dave, and our four girls, we all love attending the candlelight service. My favorite part is when the candles are lit, the lights are lowered, and beautiful voices ring out throughout the sanctuary. Here are a few words of my favorite Christmas song.

*Silent night, Holy night
All is calm, all is bright
Round yon virgin, mother and child
Holy infant, tender and mild
Sleep in heavenly peace,
Sleep in heavenly peace.*

May the Christmas season fill your home with joy, your heart with love and your life with laughter. Wishing you a very Merry Christmas as we look forward to bringing you much more from Isabella's Inspirations in 2021!

xoxo,
Diana
