ALTA

the aperitivo

Alta is our take on a dry, spritzzy aperitivo-style soda, with notes of dark berries, fruity spices, and bright pink citrus peel. Pairs well with pizza, breakfast sandwiches, and happy hour oysters.

For a mixed drink, we suggest this spritzzy, citrus-forward variation on the Americano that's bright, refreshing, and easy-drinking.

1oz sweet vermouth
1oz Campari
3-4oz Casamara Club Alta, to taste

Combine vermouth and Campari in a large wine glass filled with ice. Top with Alta and stir gently to combine. Garnish with orange wheel.

Flavored seltzers can be kinda of a drag, whether you're looking for a fun soft drink on a social evening, or an easy sipper when you need a break from all the noise. That's why we took inspiration from our favorite Italian leisure drinks to make the kinds of artisanal, craft seltzers we actually want to drink.

The result is the world's most refreshing leisure soda. It's a line of botanical craft seltzers that are balanced enough to enjoy with a meal, easy-drinking enough to relax with, and dry enough to have another.
