sparkling amaro soft drinks

SERA

the after hours

Flavored seltzers can be kinda of a drag, whether you're looking for a fun soft drink on a social evening, or an easy sipper when you need a break from all the noise. That's why we took inspiration from our favorite Italian leisure drinks to make the kinds of artisanal, craft seltzers we actually want to drink.

The result is the world's most refreshing leisure soda. It's a line of botanical craft seltzers that are balanced enough to enjoy with a meal, easy-drinking enough to relax with, and dry enough to have another.

Sera is our lo-fi take on a cinnamon-infused Aperol spritz, with notes of purple flowers, strawberry candy, and fruit tart acidity. Pair with vanilla ice cream, fresh fruit, and old movies.

A paloma variation that's a bit less sweet, and bit more complex.
