"I have used Mile Four Organic Feed for my chickens for years, and I won't use anything else. My flock loves it! They lay great eggs, and stay happy and healthy. Thank you for such a great safe clean product."

5-Star Google Review

"I have never seen a chicken feed look so raw, healthy, and natural for our birds. When you open the bag for the first time it's a "WOAH" moment. Haha. Love the ingredients, storage bag, and company purpose."

5-Star Amazon Review

Since 2019, Mile Four has set out to create the highest quality organic chicken feed in the world. As our 100% family-owned company has grown, the mission has remained the same. We continue to use premium Organic, Non-GMO grains grown on local US family farms.
