

The Evening Gleam

Words by James Devaney

Richard Peter Maddox
op. 3

Steady and expressive $\text{♩} = 60$

mp

Soprano
The eve-ning gleam of still wa- ters

Alto
The eve-ning gleam of still wa. ters can

Tenor
The eve-ning gleam of still wa - ters can stay

Bass
The eve-ning gleam of still wa - ters

7 cresc mf

can stay the feet that roam As if the soul in its long stay the feet that roam in its long

(stay) the feet that roam in its long

can stay the feet that roam in its long

12 dim pp f

home - less - ness came sud - den - ly home. I know not still what beau - ty is;

home - less - ness came sud - den - ly home. I know not still what beau - ty is, home - less - ness came sud - den - ly home. I know not still what beau - ty is, Let me home-less-ness came sud-den-ly home. I know not still what beau-ty is,