

It Is The Evening Hour

John Wayne Dixon

words by John Clare (1793-1864)

Adagio $\text{♩} = 48$

Soprano

Piano

legato, reflectively

p

5

Sop.

poco tenuto

It is the 5

Pno.

9

Sop.

eve ning hour — How si — lent all doth lie;

9

Pno.

I Love All Beauteous Things

4

John Wayne Dixon

(words by Robert Bridges, 1844-1930)

Adagio e semplice

Soprano

mp

I love all beauteous things, I

Sop.

5

5

seek and adore them. God hath no

Pno.

Sop.

8

8

better praise, but man, in his hast y days is hon our'd

Pno.

Night

6

John Wayne Dixon

(words by Frederick John Dixon, 1922-2001)

Calmato $\text{♩} = 40$

Soprano

Piano

p

pp

Sop.

Pno.

6

The night _____ has cast _____ its fetters

pp

Wild Nights

John Wayne Dixon

(words by Emily Dickinson)

Appassionato

$\text{♩} = 66$

Soprano

Piano

Sop.

Wild nights! Wild nights! Were I with Pno.

Sop.

thee, wild nights should be our

Pno.

The Summer Night Was Mild

17

John Wayne Dixon

(words by Gustav Falke translated John Wayne Dixon)

With quiet ecstasy

$\bullet = 60$

Soprano

Piano

Sop.

Pno.

Sop.

Mild summ er night, No stars — shin ing

Pno.