

CURRENTS GALLERY

We are a well respected artist-owned gallery in McMinnville, Oregon. We display a wide variety of consignment art created in Northwest Oregon. We consider applications on a continuing basis from artists in our area. Each month we review work by prospective consignment artists to choose additional high quality art to display in our gallery.

Our space is very limited so on occasion we must reject some excellent artists because their work is similar to art that we are already showing, or because the work is not a good fit with our gallery.

Our exhibits change frequently. Those artists we accept can expect a limited number of pieces to be on display in each month. We keep a few of their extras in our storeroom to replace art that sells and also to show to customers who express interest in that artist. We also feature some of our artists' work for sale on our website, and occasionally offer select items in our online auctions. The artists we represent may not be represented by any other gallery within a five mile radius. Currents Gallery takes a 50% commission from consignment artists' sales.

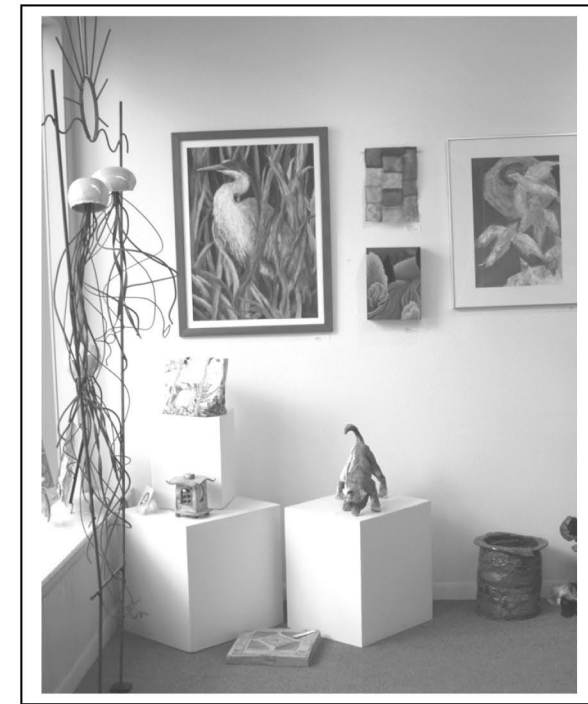

HOW TO APPLY AS A CONSIGNMENT ARTIST

If you are interested in being a consignment artist at Currents Gallery, there are two ways to apply. The easiest way is to submit an application and samples of your work online at www.currentsgallery.com or you may also bring your art directly to the gallery. We require the following items, along with this application, for consideration:

- Six gallery-ready samples of your work.*
- A bio or resume which may include arts education, exhibitions, reviews, professional training, or awards.
- A one paragraph artist's statement, what inspires you?.

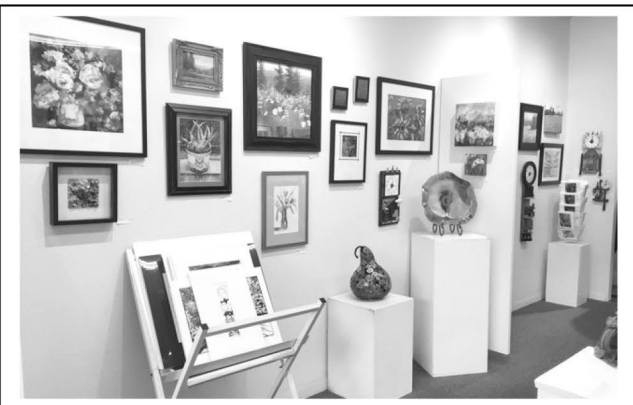

After jurying, we will promptly notify you of our decision. If your work has been chosen for consignment it may be displayed within a few weeks after acceptance. If it has not been accepted you will be asked to pick it up in a timely fashion.

*"Gallery Ready" means that the wall art is properly framed with wire hangers and that 3-d art is ready to display on a shelf, pedestal or clothes hanger.

TEACHERS WANTED

Our large well-equipped Back Door Studio room is dedicated to teaching art. If you have experience teaching in one or more media and would like to teach classes in our space, please contact us by phone or email at: currents.gallery@gmail.com and one of our partners will contact you.
