- I agree to abide by the Rules of Panaga Club and settle all my Accounts.
- Parents of teenagers are informed that, if children are under 14 years of age, they shall be accompanied at all times by an adult family member (or another adult member nominated by the parents) which excludes Amahs whilst on Club premises and must be within the view when in or around the pool as the adult family member is responsible for the welfare, safety and behaviour of the child. No unsupervised children under 14 years of age including attending swimming lessons are allowed in the swimming pools or surrounding areas of the pools defined by the barriers.

The only exceptions are below but this privilege may be withdrawn upon observed misconduct of your child(ren):

- Children aged 12 and 13 years where the parents have applied for permission to allow their children to sign chits and unaccompanied access to all Club areas except Fitness Centre room, Golf course/Driving Range and Swimming Pool.
- Children aged 6 up to 11 years where the parents have applied for permission to allow their children to sign chits and unaccompanied on Club premises to attend/participate in specific activities/lessons such as Auskick, Dance, Football, Library, Music, Rugby (& Touch), Tennis or Youth Club. Parents must take responsibilities to collect their children immediately after the activities/lessons. Repeat offenders may have this privilege taken away.
- I acknowledge and understand the Panaga Club Swimming Pool rules as they appear in the Swimming Pool Complex. I will endeavour to obey these rules at all times, and ensure that my family members and guests do the same.
