Tasting notes and food recommendation:

The Rosé Sparkling - gentle balance and lively sparkles in a pale pink look. The slightly playful sweetness of red berries and plums is in harmony with lively acidity.

Perfect as a fine aperitif, for celebrating or just for fun.

About the vintner:

As one of the first winemakers for our co-productions and our first ever non-alcoholic Kolonne Null wine, a Silvaner 2018, Kolonne Null bonds a close collaboration and long evenings in the wine cellar with Julius Wasem. The passion for wine was laid in the cradle of the entire family: The three brothers Julius, Philipp and Gerhard Wasem are now the fourth generation to manage the down-to-earth but elegant family winery in the Kaiserpfalz with 30 hectares. The Ingelheimer Grund offers the best soils for the production of convincing wines with a characterful style. Since 2018, our renowned Rosé Prickelnd has also been produced in co-production with Wasem.
