

CHACRA LA PAPAY SINGLE VINEYARD

MALBEC

Chacra La Papay is the name of our vineyard and therefore this line of wines directly offers the clear and elegant aromatic expression of our wines, with smooth and balanced tannins that provide the right structure.

Malma is a word originating in Patagonia that means pride. Pride for the road traveled and for what has been done.

Bodega Malma, owned by the Viola family, pioneers of viticulture in San Patricio del Chañar, honors its name by filling us with pride with wines that reflect the terroir and the care we put into them.

VINEYARD

Region: San Patricio Del Chañar - Argentine Patagonia.

Latitud: 39° S.

Climate: Wide thermal amplitude. Low atmospheric humidity; constant winds and low precipitation.

Soil: Loose sandy aeolian topsoil of 20 cm, somewhat gravelly with good drainage and fairly large rocks at depth. The soils have very low organic content.

VINIFICATION

Fermentation: Traditional, 14 - 16 days with temperature controlled at 26°-28°C.

TASTING NOTES

Color: Deep red.

Nose: Very floral and fresh, with a good presence of red fruit with its finesse.

Mouth: Elegant wine, sweet and round tannins, very friendly with a medium body and a long finish.
