BALL CHAIR FRAME

Transform Your Exercise Ball Into an Office Necessity

SKU: CFRAME

Product Description

Looking for something a little more active for your home or workplace? The Ball Chair Frame allows you to turn an exercise ball into an Active Office chair! The frame is designed to accommodate existing exercise balls and the legs can adjust to your height, allowing you to achieve optimal posture without breaking the bank. Although ideal for the office, the Ball Chair Frame can also be suited for fitness exercises as well.
