

INTRODUCTION TO GENESIS

Author and Date

The book of Genesis is the first book of the Pentateuch (Genesis–Deuteronomy). It gives the foundation stories of God’s relation to the world, to the patriarchs, and to Israel. The name of Moses has been closely associated with the Pentateuch. He led Israel out of Egypt and was God’s faithful servant. His ministry has been variously dated from 1500 to 1300 B.C.

Audience

Genesis narrates for Israel the story of people who walked with the Lord (Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph) to encourage their descendants to break away from their resistant and recurring hardness of heart. The author intends the reader of the Pentateuch to connect the foundation stories (exile from Eden, human wickedness, and God’s unfolding promises of grace) with Israel’s new opportunity (of entering the land, despite Israel’s rebelliousness, and through God’s unfailing faithfulness to his promises). Genesis identifies the promises and path to life that must be understood and followed in order for the people of God to fulfill their calling as it is described and prescribed in Moses’ later books (e.g., Deut. 30:19–20) and, indeed, the rest of Scripture.

The Theological Message of Genesis

Genesis opens with the Bible’s greatest claim: there is only one God, and he made the heavens and the earth. This assertion sets Genesis apart from other ancient creation stories and from all polytheistic religions. All of life’s greatest questions and purposes begin and end in God. Who he is determines who we are and why everything in the universe exists.

God’s role as Creator and mighty King is seen in Genesis 1:1–2:3. He speaks his powerful word, and the world comes into existence. Since he is their Creator, all things are his servants (cf. Ps. 119:89–91). The order of creation shows that God provides for land, animals, and people before making them. And as he makes them he assesses them, repeatedly calling them “good.” When he completes his work he rests, thereby providing an example for his creatures to follow.

Genesis then highlights that human beings are created in the image of God. God makes men and women to be his regents, stewards of his creation (Gen. 1:26–31). Unlike the animals, they bear his image: they think, speak, relate, work, rule, and assess (2:4–25). Best of all, they can know him, walk with him, and share his work. Created sinless, they need only to keep his commands for their perfect life with him to continue.

But the first man (Adam) and woman (Eve) sin. They distrust God’s motives and words and break his commands (3:1–7). They fear his presence (3:8-13) and incur his punishment. Sin costs them everything dear to them. The ground, their children, and their walk with God all suffer (3:16-19). They pass on sin to their children like a genetic defect (4:1-26; Rom. 5:12-21). Soon they have so marred the world that God sweeps away all but Noah's family in a great flood (Gen. 6:5-7:24).

God promises redemption. The Creator creates a way people can be saved from sin and its deadly effects. Faced with a massive problem, he begins simply and organically, with people. He promises a Savior through Eve, the first sinner (3:15). He makes a covenant with the earth and with Noah's family, pledging that life will continue and binding Noah's family to God's service (8:20-9:7).

God makes a covenant with Abraham. God chooses Abraham, Noah's descendant, and his family to bless all the world's nations (12:1-9). He says to Abraham that in him, "all the families of the earth shall be blessed" (12:3; cf. Gal. 3:8), and promises to give him an eternal homeland (Gen. 12:1-2, 7; 13:14-17). God protects his family in Egypt, where he prepares them to bless the world (15:13-16; 37:1-50:26).

God saves by grace through faith. God saves Noah, Abraham, their spouses, and their descendants by his grace through their faith in him (8:20; 15:6; cf. Heb. 11:1-40). They do the good works he saved them to do (Gen. 18:18-19; cf. Eph. 2:9-10) so others will come to know God. God never surrenders his kingdom or his subjects to sin. He saves those who trust him.

Jesus Christ is a descendant of Adam and Eve, Noah, and Abraham (Matt. 1:1-17; Luke 3:23-38). He keeps all of God's promises. He holds creation together (Col. 1:17; Heb. 1:3), defeats sin (Rom. 3:21-31) and death (1 Cor. 15:1-58), and blesses all nations (Matt. 28:16-20). He is the only Savior (Acts 4:12), and his people are a new creation (2 Cor. 5:16-20).

The Creation of the World

In the <sup>a</sup>beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. <sup>2</sup>The earth was <sup>b</sup>without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters.

<sup>3</sup>And God said, <sup>c</sup>“Let there be light,” and there was light. <sup>4</sup>And God saw that the light was good. And God separated the light from the darkness. <sup>5</sup>God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

<sup>6</sup>And God said, <sup>d</sup>“Let there be an expanse<sup>1</sup> in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.” <sup>7</sup>And God made<sup>2</sup> the expanse and <sup>e</sup>separated the waters that were under the expanse from the waters that were <sup>f</sup>above the expanse. And it was so. <sup>8</sup>And God called the expanse Heaven.<sup>3</sup> And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

<sup>9</sup>And God said, <sup>g</sup>“Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear.” And it was so. <sup>10</sup>God called the dry land Earth,<sup>4</sup> and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good.

<sup>11</sup>And God said, <sup>h</sup>“Let the earth sprout vegetation, plants<sup>5</sup> yielding seed, and fruit trees bearing fruit in which is their seed, each according to its kind, on the earth.” And it was so. <sup>12</sup>The earth brought forth vegetation, plants yielding seed according to their own kinds, and trees bearing fruit in which is their seed, each according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. <sup>13</sup>And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

<sup>14</sup>And God said, <sup>i</sup>“Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night. And let them be for <sup>j</sup>signs and for <sup>k</sup>seasons,<sup>6</sup> and for days and years, <sup>15</sup>and let them be lights in the expanse of the heavens to give light upon the earth.” And it was so. <sup>16</sup>And God <sup>l</sup>made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. <sup>17</sup>And God set them in the expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth, <sup>18</sup>to <sup>m</sup>rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. <sup>19</sup>And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

<sup>20</sup>And God said, <sup>n</sup>“Let the waters swarm with swarms of living creatures, and let birds<sup>7</sup> fly above the earth across the expanse of the heavens.” <sup>21</sup>So <sup>o</sup>God created the great sea creatures and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarm, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. <sup>22</sup>And God blessed them, saying, <sup>p</sup>“Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.” <sup>23</sup>And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

<sup>24</sup>And God said, <sup>q</sup>“Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds—livestock and creeping things and beasts of the earth according to their kinds.” And it was so. <sup>25</sup>And God made the beasts of the earth according to their kinds and the livestock according to their kinds, and everything that creeps on the ground according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

28 And God blessed them. And God said to them, <sup>s</sup>“Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it, and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over every living thing that moves on the earth.” 29 And God said, “Behold, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is on the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit. <sup>t</sup>You shall have them for food. 30 And <sup>u</sup>to every beast of the earth and to every bird of the heavens and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.” And it was so. 31 <sup>v</sup>And God saw everything that he had made, and behold, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

The Seventh Day, God Rests

2 Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and <sup>w</sup>all the host of them. 2 And <sup>x</sup>on the seventh day God finished his work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all his work that he had done. 3 So God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it God rested from all his work that he had done in creation.

Mankind: The Image of God

Genesis 1:26-31

As God prepares to make mankind, he declares he will make creatures like himself and give them rule over his creation (v. 26). He then executes his plan: “So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them” (v. 27). The text does not define the image of God in mankind, but it does offer several hints.

Adam and Eve are God’s image. God created them holy (Eph. 4:24) and with the ability to obey him in knowledge (Col. 3:9-10), to use language, and to be creative. Bearing God’s image means possessing personhood, which involves unique souls and relationships with God and others. Moses hints at this by showing that two genders were a part of God’s plan from the beginning (Gen. 1:27). God gives significance to both men and women by creating them in his image, and both image him in his world.

Image-bearing also includes fulfilling the roles God assigns. Adam and Eve are to represent God by exercising dominion over his creation (vv. 26, 28). In addition, because Adam and Eve are the first parents of all humans, only one race of image-bearers exists, as Paul underscores: God “made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth” (Acts 17:26). Consequently, mankind’s various ethnic groups come from one family, ruling out any racism.

Theology for Life—May God help us to treat people of both genders and all races with the respect and dignity that accords with their creation in God’s image.

Col. 3:9-10

<sup>5</sup> When no <sup>z</sup> bush of the field<sup>1</sup> was yet in the land<sup>2</sup> and no small plant of the field had yet sprung up—for the LORD God had not caused it to rain on the land, and there was no man <sup>a</sup> to work the ground, <sup>6</sup> and a mist<sup>3</sup> was going up from the land and was watering the whole face of the ground— <sup>7</sup> then the LORD God formed the man of <sup>b</sup> dust from the ground and <sup>c</sup> breathed into his <sup>d</sup> nostrils the breath of life, and <sup>e</sup> the man became a living creature. <sup>8</sup> And the LORD God planted a <sup>f</sup> garden in Eden, in the east, and there he put the man whom he had formed. <sup>9</sup> And out of the ground the LORD God made to spring up every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. <sup>9</sup> The tree of life was in the midst of the garden, <sup>h</sup> and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

<sup>10</sup> A river flowed out of Eden to water the garden, and there it divided and became four rivers. <sup>11</sup> The name of the first is the Pishon. It is the one that flowed around the whole land of <sup>i</sup> Havilah, where there is gold. <sup>12</sup> And the gold of that land is good; bdellium and onyx stone are there. <sup>13</sup> The name of the second river is the Gihon. It is the one that flowed around the whole land of Cush. <sup>14</sup> And the name of the third river is the <sup>j</sup> Tigris, which flows east of Assyria. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.

<sup>15</sup> The LORD God took the man <sup>k</sup> and put him in the garden of Eden to work it and keep it. <sup>16</sup> And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, “You may surely eat of every tree of the garden, <sup>17</sup> but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil <sup>l</sup> you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat<sup>4</sup> of it you <sup>m</sup> shall surely die.”

<sup>18</sup> Then the LORD God said, “It is not good that the man should be alone; <sup>n</sup> I will make him a helper fit for<sup>5</sup> him.” <sup>19</sup> Now out of the ground the LORD God had formed<sup>6</sup> every beast of the field and every bird of the heavens and <sup>p</sup> brought them to the man to see what he would call them. And whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name. <sup>20</sup> The man gave names to all livestock and to the birds of the heavens and to every beast of the field. But for Adam<sup>7</sup> there was not found a helper fit for him. <sup>21</sup> So the LORD God caused a <sup>o</sup> deep sleep to fall upon the man, and while he slept took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. <sup>22</sup> And the rib that the LORD God had taken from the man he made<sup>8</sup>

Mankind: The Cultural Mandate

Genesis 1:28

God’s image-bearers have work to do in his good world. God’s first command to them is “be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth” (v. 28), for he wants his world to be filled with more image-bearers who know and love him and who will serve him as his vicegerents.

God’s second command to Adam and Eve concerns the created order—they are to “subdue it, and have dominion over . . . every living thing” (v. 28). In other words, God desires innovation and cultivation of the creation and its resources to expand Eden into the whole world. God cares for his good creation and for the people who live in it, so he establishes this cultural mandate to reflect his glory throughout the world. Even after the fall, God commands mankind, through Noah’s family, to continue this mandate (9:1, 7) for the glory of God in all the earth.

Theology for Life—Our Creator calls us also to raise children after his own heart and to cultivate the earth responsibly for his glory and our well-being.

He said to the woman, “Did God actually say, ‘You<sup>2</sup> shall not eat of any tree in the gar-

Mankind: Creation

Genesis 2:7–8

Human beings are creatures of the Creator. While Genesis may not give us a highly detailed account of human beginnings, it does accurately record the historical events of God’s creative work. This account assured the people of Israel that their God was the Creator of the heavens and the earth and that they could count on his goodness and generosity. Genesis 2:7–8 speak of the creation of Adam, amplifying 1:26–31 in order to show that God is a divine potter, capable of using the dust from the ground to shape a body for his image-bearer. The passage showcases both God’s skill as Creator and his sovereignty over his creature.

After sculpting Adam’s body, God “breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living creature” (2:7). Here God is giving Adam life, just as he gave “the breath of life” to animals (1:30; 6:17), which the text also describes as “living creatures” (1:20, 21, 24). However, unlike God’s creation of animals, his creation of Adam is intimate—face to face—and personal.

Because it was not good for Adam to be alone, God makes for him a counterpart and partner. After Adam’s fruitless search among the animals for a companion, God makes of his flesh and bones a person to be Adam’s wife—a woman Adam names Eve (2:18–23; 3:20). God brings Adam and Eve together and they are united, including sexually (2:24–25). Their marriage bond, which their Maker establishes, is to be exclusive and permanent, and they are to produce offspring (1:28). God puts Adam and Eve in the garden of Eden to work and tend it (2:15).

Theology for Life—God himself made our first parents, and he made them for himself. We are God’s creatures and belong to him. We find dignity and security in living as his creatures and giving him the honor due him as our Maker. That includes honoring his institution of marriage.

<sup>8</sup> And they heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool<sup>1</sup> of the day, and the man and his wife<sup>b</sup> hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden. <sup>9</sup> But the LORD God called to the man and said to him, “Where are you?”<sup>2</sup> <sup>10</sup> And he said, “I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, <sup>c</sup> because I was naked, and I hid myself.” <sup>11</sup> He said, “Who

Sin: The Fall

Genesis 3:1-19

After the creation accounts in Genesis 1-2, chapter 3 tells of the fall of Adam and Eve and its catastrophic effects. Suddenly a new character enters the scene—the serpent, a mouthpiece for an evil power whom Scripture later identifies as the Devil or Satan (John 8:44; Rev. 12:9; 20:2). Addressing Eve, he first questions God’s prohibition of eating from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil on penalty of death (Gen. 3:1) and then denies God’s words (v. 4). Finally, he accuses God of selfishly withholding the fruit (v. 5). Satan seduces Eve, who eats from the tree and gives to Adam, who does likewise (v. 6).

The results of their primal sin are immense. God declares the death sentence on them both (v. 19), which is executed immediately in spiritual death (v. 8) and ultimately in physical death (5:5) as they are cut off from the tree of life (3:22). Their sin also has grave consequences for marriage roles (3:16) and for man’s work, which will be toilsome and frustrating (vv. 17-19). Because they have become slaves of sin, God will expel them from the garden-sanctuary (vv. 22-24).

After Adam and Eve rebel, they hide themselves from their Creator, but he finds them, holds them accountable for their sin, and promises salvation. God curses the serpent and the Evil One controlling it. His curse on the serpent, Satan, is not literal but figurative: to “eat dust” means to suffer humiliation and defeat (cf. Mic. 7:17). God further declares, “I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel” (Gen. 3:15).

Eve’s offspring will be an individual champion who defeats the Evil One; Satan’s offspring are those he will seduce into following him. Here is the first mention in Scripture of the gospel (also known as the protoeuangelion), as God promises to defeat the serpent for the benefit of humankind. The champion is a human (the woman’s offspring) powerful enough to defeat the Devil. Genesis thus begins to lay the foundation for the theology of the Messiah.

Theology for Life—God’s provision of an offspring who will overcome the serpent’s seed points to Jesus Christ’s defeat of Satan and death, deliverance of human beings, and liberation of creation from sin’s consequences (Heb. 2:14-15; Rom. 8:19-22; 16:20).

GENESIS 3:15

- “Because you have done this, cursed are you above all livestock and above all beasts of the field;
 on your belly you shall go, and <sup>f</sup> dust you shall eat all the days of your life.
 15 I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring<sup>1</sup> and <sup>g</sup> her offspring;
<sup>h</sup> he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel.”
- 16 To the woman he said, “I will surely multiply your pain in childbearing;
<sup>i</sup> in pain you shall bring forth children.
<sup>j</sup> Your desire shall be contrary to<sup>2</sup> your husband, but he shall <sup>k</sup> rule over you.”
- 17 And to Adam he said, “Because you have listened to the voice of your wife and have eaten of the tree
<sup>l</sup> of which I commanded you,
 ‘You shall not eat of it,’
<sup>m</sup> cursed is the ground because of you; <sup>n</sup> in pain you shall eat of it all the days of your life;
 18 thorns and thistles it shall bring forth for you;
 and you shall eat the plants of the field.
 19 By the sweat of your face you shall eat bread, till you return to the ground,
 for out of it you were taken; <sup>o</sup> for you are dust,
 and <sup>p</sup> to dust you shall return.”

20 The man called his wife’s name Eve, because she was the mother of all living.<sup>3</sup> 21 And the LORD God made for Adam and for his wife garments of skins and clothed them.
 22 Then the LORD God said, <sup>q</sup> “Behold, the man has become like one of us in knowing good and evil. Now, lest he reach out his hand <sup>r</sup> and take also of the tree of life and eat, and live forever—”<sup>23</sup> therefore the LORD God sent him out from the garden of Eden <sup>s</sup> to work the ground from which he was taken. <sup>24</sup> He drove out the man, and at the east of the garden of Eden he placed the <sup>t</sup> cherubim and a flaming sword that turned every way to guard the way to the tree of life.

Cain and Abel

4 Now Adam knew Eve his wife, and she conceived and bore Cain, saying, “I have gotten<sup>4</sup> a man with the help of the LORD.”
<sup>2</sup> And again, she bore his brother Abel. Now Abel was a keeper of sheep, and Cain a worker of the ground. <sup>3</sup> In the course of time Cain brought to the LORD an offering of <sup>u</sup> the fruit of the ground, <sup>4</sup> and Abel also brought of <sup>v</sup> the firstborn of his flock and of their fat portions.
 And the LORD <sup>w</sup> had regard for Abel and his offering, <sup>5</sup> but <sup>x</sup> for Cain and his offering he had no regard. So Cain was very angry, and his face fell. <sup>6</sup> The LORD said to Cain, “Why are you angry, and why has your face fallen? <sup>7</sup> If you do well, will you not be accepted?<sup>5</sup> And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door. <sup>2</sup> Its desire is contrary to<sup>6</sup> you, but you must rule over it.”

<sup>8</sup> Cain spoke to Abel his brother.<sup>7</sup> And when they were in the field, Cain rose up against his brother Abel and <sup>a</sup> killed him. <sup>9</sup> Then the LORD said to Cain, “Where is Abel your brother?”
 He said, <sup>b</sup> “I do not know; am I my brother’s keeper?” <sup>10</sup> And the LORD said, “What have you done? The voice of your brother’s blood <sup>c</sup> is crying to me from the ground. <sup>11</sup> And now <sup>d</sup> you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood from your hand. <sup>12</sup> When you work the ground, it shall no longer yield to you its strength. You shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth.” <sup>13</sup> Cain said to the LORD, “My <sup>e</sup> punishment is greater than I can bear.<sup>8</sup>

I shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth, <sup>h</sup> and whoever finds me will kill me.” <sup>15</sup> Then the LORD said to him, “Not so! If anyone kills Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him <sup>i</sup> sevenfold.” And the LORD <sup>j</sup> put a mark on Cain, lest any who found him should attack him. <sup>16</sup> Then Cain went away from the presence of the LORD and settled in the land of Nod, <sup>k</sup> east of Eden.

<sup>17</sup> Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch. When he built a city, he called the name of the city after the name of his son, Enoch. <sup>18</sup> To Enoch was born Irad, and Irad fathered Methujael, and Methujael fathered Methushael, and Methushael fathered Lamech. <sup>19</sup> And Lamech took two wives. The name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah. <sup>20</sup> Adah bore Jabal; he was the father of those who dwell in tents and have livestock. <sup>21</sup> His brother's name was Jubal; he was the father of all those who play the lyre and pipe. <sup>22</sup> Zillah also bore Tubal-cain; he was the forger of all instruments of bronze and iron. The sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.

“Adah and Zillah, hear my voice;
you wives of Lamech, listen to what I say:

I have killed a man for wounding me, a young man for striking me.

<sup>24</sup> <sup>k</sup> If Cain's revenge is sevenfold, then Lamech's is seventy-sevenfold.”

<sup>25</sup> And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son and called his name Seth, for she said, “God has appointed<sup>2</sup> for me another offspring instead of Abel, for Cain killed him.” <sup>26</sup> To <sup>l</sup> Seth also a son was born, and he called his name <sup>m</sup> Enosh. At that time people began <sup>n</sup> to call upon the name of the LORD.

Adam's Descendants to Noah

5 This is the book of the generations of Adam. When God created man, <sup>o</sup> he made him in the likeness of God. <sup>2</sup> Male and female he created them, and he blessed them and named them Man<sup>3</sup> when they were created. <sup>3</sup> When Adam had lived 130 years, he fathered a son in his own likeness, after his image, and <sup>p</sup> named him Seth. <sup>4</sup> <sup>q</sup> The days of Adam after he fathered Seth were 800 years; and he had other sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup> Thus all the days that Adam lived were 930 years, <sup>r</sup> and he died.

<sup>6</sup> When Seth had lived 105 years, <sup>s</sup> he fathered Enosh. <sup>7</sup> Seth lived after he fathered Enosh 807 years and had other sons and daughters. <sup>8</sup> Thus all the days of Seth were 912 years, and he died.

<sup>9</sup> When Enosh had lived 90 years, he fathered Kenan. <sup>10</sup> Enosh lived after he fathered Kenan 815 years and had other sons and daughters. <sup>11</sup> Thus all the days of Enosh were 905 years, and he died.

<sup>12</sup> When Kenan had lived 70 years, he fathered Mahalalel. <sup>13</sup> Kenan lived after he fathered Mahalalel 840 years and had other sons and daughters. <sup>14</sup> Thus all the days of Kenan were 910 years, and he died.

<sup>15</sup> When Mahalalel had lived 65 years, he fathered Jared. <sup>16</sup> Mahalalel lived after he fathered Jared 830 years and had other sons and daughters. <sup>17</sup> Thus all the days of Mahalalel were 895 years, and he died.

<sup>18</sup> When Jared had lived 162 years, he fathered <sup>t</sup> Enoch. <sup>19</sup> Jared lived after he fathered Enoch 800 years and had other sons and daughters. <sup>20</sup> Thus all the days of Jared were 962 years, and he died.

<sup>25</sup> When Methuselah had lived 187 years, he fathered Lamech. <sup>26</sup> Methuselah lived after he fathered Lamech 782 years and had other sons and daughters. <sup>27</sup> Thus all the days of Methuselah were 969 years, and he died.

<sup>28</sup> When Lamech had lived 182 years, he fathered a son <sup>29</sup> and called his name Noah, saying, “Out of the ground <sup>w</sup> that the LORD has cursed, this one shall bring us relief<sup>6</sup> from

Increasing Corruption on Earth

6 When man began to multiply on the face of the land and daughters were born to them, <sup>2</sup> the sons of God saw that the daughters of man were attractive. And they took as their wives any they chose. <sup>3</sup> Then the LORD said, <sup>2</sup> “My Spirit shall not abide in <sup>1</sup> man forever, <sup>3</sup> for he is flesh: his days shall be 120 years.” <sup>4</sup> The Nephilim<sup>2</sup> were on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of man and they bore children to them. These were the mighty men who were of old, the men of renown.

<sup>5</sup> <sup>b</sup> The LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every <sup>c</sup> intention of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. <sup>6</sup> And <sup>d</sup> the LORD regretted that he had made man on the earth, and it <sup>e</sup> grieved him to his heart. <sup>7</sup> So the LORD said, “I will blot out man whom I have created from the face of the land, man and animals and creeping things and birds of the heavens, for I am sorry that I have made them.” <sup>8</sup> But Noah <sup>f</sup> found favor in the eyes of the LORD.

Noah and the Flood

<sup>9</sup> These are the generations of Noah. <sup>9</sup> Noah was a righteous man, <sup>h</sup> blameless in his generation. Noah <sup>i</sup> walked with God. <sup>10</sup> And Noah had three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

<sup>11</sup> Now the earth was corrupt in God’s sight, and the earth was filled with violence. <sup>12</sup> And God <sup>j</sup> saw the earth, and behold, it was corrupt, <sup>k</sup> for all flesh had corrupted their way on the earth. <sup>13</sup> And God said to Noah, <sup>l</sup> “I have determined to make an end of all flesh,<sup>3</sup> for

Sin: Its Universality

Genesis 6:5-8

Although we do not know how much time elapsed between the fall and the flood, Scripture leaves no doubt as to the deterioration of mankind’s moral condition in that interval. The words “The LORD saw” of verse 5 echo “And God saw” of 1:31. But what he saw on these two occasions could not be more different. After creation, everything God saw was “very good” (1:31). Here God sees humanity’s great and constant evil in thoughts and actions.

The phrase “The LORD saw” also shows that he brings judgment not impulsively but only after full awareness of the situation: “The wickedness of man was great in the earth, and . . . every intention of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually” (v. 5). Such great and extensive sin deeply wounds God, who responds by destroying human and animal life (vv. 6-7). God’s unchanging, uncompromising righteous character is consistent with his judgment on human rebellion, which takes the form of a flood that drowns mankind and the world over which it was to rule. Yet even in the midst of God’s judgment, his grace shines, for he spares Noah, who has found favor in his eyes (v. 8).

Theology for Life—Although Noah had not given himself over to sin like his contemporaries, he was not perfect (see 9:21). The effects of Adam’s first sin are universal: “All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God” (Rom. 3:23). Only one Man was without sin, and he died and rose to rescue all who trust in him.

the earth is filled with violence through them. Behold, I will destroy them with the earth. <sup>14</sup> Make yourself an ark of gopher wood. <sup>1</sup> Make rooms in the ark, and cover it inside and out with pitch. <sup>15</sup> This is how you are to make it: the length of the ark 300 cubits, <sup>2</sup> its breadth 50 cubits, and its height 30 cubits. <sup>16</sup> Make a roof <sup>3</sup> for the ark, and finish it to a cubit above, and set the door of the ark in its side. Make it with lower, second, and third decks. <sup>17</sup> <sup>m</sup> For behold, I will bring a flood of waters upon the earth to destroy all flesh in which is the breath of life under heaven. Everything that is on the earth shall die. <sup>18</sup> But <sup>n</sup> I will establish my covenant with you, and you shall come into the ark, you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you. <sup>19</sup> And of every living thing of all flesh, you shall bring two of every sort into the ark to keep them alive with you. They shall be male and female. <sup>20</sup> Of the birds according to their kinds, and of the animals according to their kinds, of every creeping thing of the ground, according to its kind, two of every sort shall come in to you to keep them alive. <sup>21</sup> Also take with you every sort of food that is eaten, and store it up. It shall serve as food for you and for them." <sup>22</sup> <sup>o</sup> Noah did this; he did all that God commanded him.

7 Then the LORD said to Noah, <sup>p</sup> "Go into the ark, you and all your household, for I have seen that <sup>q</sup> you are righteous before me in this generation. <sup>2</sup> Take with you seven pairs of all <sup>r</sup> clean animals, <sup>4</sup> the male and his mate, and a pair of the animals that are not clean, the male and his mate, <sup>3</sup> and seven pairs <sup>5</sup> of the birds of the heavens also, male and female, to keep their offspring alive on the face of all the earth. <sup>4</sup> For in seven days <sup>s</sup> I will send rain on the earth forty days and forty nights, <sup>t</sup> and every living thing <sup>6</sup> that I have made I will blot out from the face of the ground." <sup>5</sup> <sup>u</sup> And Noah did all that the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>6</sup> Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters came upon the earth. <sup>7</sup> And Noah and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him went into the ark to escape the waters of the flood. <sup>8</sup> Of clean animals, and of animals that are not clean, and of birds, and of everything that creeps on the ground, <sup>9</sup> two and two, male and female, went into the ark with Noah, as God had commanded Noah. <sup>10</sup> And after seven days the waters of the flood came upon the earth.

<sup>11</sup> In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the <sup>v</sup> fountains of the great deep burst forth, and <sup>w</sup> the windows of the heavens were opened. <sup>12</sup> And rain fell upon the earth forty days and forty nights. <sup>13</sup> On the very same day Noah and his sons, Shem and Ham and Japheth, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with them entered the ark, <sup>14</sup> they and every beast, according to its kind, and all the livestock according to their kinds, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, according to its kind, and every bird, according to its kind, every winged creature. <sup>15</sup> They <sup>x</sup> went into the ark with Noah, two and two of all flesh in which there was the breath of life. <sup>16</sup> And those that entered, male and female of all flesh, went in <sup>y</sup> as God had commanded him. And the LORD shut him in.

<sup>17</sup> The flood <sup>z</sup> continued forty days on the earth. The waters increased and bore up the ark, and it rose high above the earth. <sup>18</sup> The waters prevailed and increased greatly on the earth, and the ark floated on the face of the waters. <sup>19</sup> And the waters prevailed so mightily on the earth that all the high mountains under the whole heaven were covered. <sup>20</sup> The waters prevailed above the mountains, covering them fifteen cubits <sup>7</sup> deep. <sup>21</sup> And <sup>a</sup> all flesh died that moved on the earth, birds, livestock, beasts, all swarming creatures that swarm on the earth, and all mankind. <sup>22</sup> Everything on the dry land <sup>b</sup> in whose nostrils was the breath of life died. <sup>23</sup> He blotted out every living thing that was on the face of the ground, man and animals and creeping things and birds of the heavens. They were blotted out from the earth. Only <sup>c</sup> Noah was left, and those who were with him in the ark. <sup>24</sup> And the waters prevailed on the earth 150 days.

The Flood Subsides

8 But God <sup>a</sup>remembered Noah and all the beasts and all the livestock that were with him in the ark. And <sup>e</sup>God made a wind blow over the earth, and the waters subsided. <sup>2</sup>The fountains of the deep and <sup>f</sup>the windows of the heavens were closed, the rain from the heavens was restrained, <sup>3</sup>and the waters receded from the earth continually. At the end <sup>g</sup>of 150 days the waters had abated, <sup>4</sup>and in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark came to rest on the mountains of <sup>h</sup>Ararat. <sup>5</sup>And the waters continued to abate until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains were seen.

<sup>6</sup>At the end of forty days Noah opened the window of the ark that he had made <sup>7</sup>and sent forth a raven. It went to and fro until the waters were dried up from the earth. <sup>8</sup>Then he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters had subsided from the face of the ground. <sup>9</sup>But the dove found no place to set her foot, and she returned to him to the ark, for the waters were still on the face of the whole earth. So he put out his hand and took her and brought her into the ark with him. <sup>10</sup>He waited another seven days, and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark. <sup>11</sup>And the dove came back to him in the evening, and behold, in her mouth was a freshly plucked olive leaf. So Noah knew that the waters had subsided from the earth. <sup>12</sup>Then he waited another seven days and sent forth the dove, and she did not return to him anymore.

<sup>13</sup>In the six hundred and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried from off the earth. And Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked, and behold, the face of the ground was dry. <sup>14</sup>In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth had dried out. <sup>15</sup>Then God said to Noah, <sup>16</sup>“Go out from the ark, <sup>i</sup>you and your wife, and your sons and your sons’ wives with you. <sup>17</sup>Bring out with you every living thing that is with you of all flesh—birds and animals and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth—that they may swarm on the earth, and <sup>j</sup>be fruitful and multiply on the earth.”

<sup>18</sup>So Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons’ wives with him. <sup>19</sup>Every beast, every creeping thing, and every bird, everything that moves on the earth, went out by families from the ark.

God’s Covenant with Noah

<sup>20</sup>Then Noah built an altar to the LORD and took some of every clean animal and some of every clean bird and offered burnt offerings on the altar. <sup>21</sup>And when the LORD smelled <sup>k</sup>the pleasing aroma, the LORD said in his heart, “I will never again <sup>l</sup>curse<sup>l</sup> the ground because of man, for <sup>m</sup>the intention of man’s heart is evil from his youth. <sup>n</sup>Neither will I ever again strike down every living creature as I have done. <sup>22</sup>° While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, <sup>o</sup>day and night, shall not cease.”

9 And God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, <sup>q</sup>“Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth. <sup>2</sup>The fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth and upon every bird of the heavens, upon everything that creeps on the ground and all the fish of the sea. Into your hand they are delivered. <sup>3</sup>° Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you. And <sup>l</sup>as I gave you the green plants, I give you everything. <sup>4</sup>But you shall not eat flesh with its <sup>v</sup>life, that is, its blood. <sup>5</sup>And for your lifeblood I will require a reckoning: <sup>v</sup>from every beast I will require it and <sup>w</sup>from man. From his fellow man I will require a reckoning for the life of man.

by man shall his blood be shed,

<sup>8</sup>Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, <sup>9</sup>° “Behold, <sup>2</sup>I establish my covenant

Noah's Descendants

<sup>18</sup> The sons of Noah who went forth from the ark were <sup>f</sup> Shem, Ham, and Japheth. (Ham was the father of Canaan.) <sup>19</sup> These three were the sons of Noah, and <sup>g</sup> from these the people of the whole earth were dispersed.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Or from these the whole earth was populated <sup>2</sup> Or Noah, a man of the soil, was the first to plant a vineyard <sup>3</sup> Japheth sounds like the Hebrew for enlarge <sup>4</sup> Or he began to be a mighty man on the earth <sup>5</sup> Or from where

<sup>26</sup> He also said,

“Blessed be the LORD, the God of Shem; and let Canaan be his servant.

<sup>27</sup> May God enlarge Japheth,<sup>3</sup> and let him dwell in the tents of Shem, and let Canaan be his servant.”

<sup>28</sup> After the flood Noah lived 350 years. <sup>29</sup> All the days of Noah were 950 years, and he died.

Nations Descended from Noah

10 These are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Sons were born to them after the flood.

Canaanites dispersed. <sup>19</sup> And the territory of the Canaanites extended from Sidon in the direction of Gerar as far as Gaza, and in the direction of Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha. <sup>20</sup> These are the sons of Ham, by their clans, their languages, their lands, and their nations.

<sup>21</sup> To Shem also, the father of all the children of Eber, the elder brother of Japheth, children were born. <sup>22</sup> The <sup>u</sup> sons of Shem: Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, and Aram. <sup>23</sup> The sons of Aram: Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash. <sup>24</sup> Arpachshad fathered <sup>v</sup> Shelah; and Shelah fathered Eber. <sup>25</sup> <sup>w</sup> To Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg,<sup>1</sup> for in his days the earth was divided, and his brother's name was Joktan. <sup>26</sup> Joktan fathered Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, <sup>27</sup> Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, <sup>28</sup> Obal, Abimael, Sheba, <sup>29</sup> <sup>x</sup> Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab; all these were the sons of Joktan. <sup>30</sup> The territory in which they lived extended from Mesha in the direction of Sephar to the hill country of the east. <sup>31</sup> These are the sons of Shem, by their clans, their languages, their lands, and their nations.

The Tower of Babel

11 Now the whole earth had one language and the same words. <sup>2</sup> And as people migrated from the east, they found a plain in <sup>z</sup> the land of Shinar and settled there. <sup>3</sup> And they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly." And they had brick for stone, <sup>a</sup> and bitumen for mortar. <sup>4</sup> Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city and a tower <sup>b</sup> with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be dispersed over the face of the whole earth." <sup>5</sup> And <sup>c</sup> the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of man had built. <sup>6</sup> And the LORD said, "Behold, they are one people, and they have all one language, and this is only the beginning of what they will do. And nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them. <sup>7</sup> Come, <sup>d</sup> let us go down and there confuse their language, so that they may not understand one another's speech." <sup>8</sup> So <sup>e</sup> the LORD dispersed them from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city. <sup>9</sup> Therefore its name was called <sup>f</sup> Babel, because there the LORD confused<sup>2</sup> the language of all the earth. And from there the LORD dispersed them over the face of all the earth.

Shem's Descendants

<sup>10</sup><sup>9</sup> These are the generations of Shem. When Shem was 100 years old, he fathered Arpachshad two years after the flood. <sup>11</sup> And Shem lived after he fathered Arpachshad 500 years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>12</sup> When Arpachshad had lived 35 years, he fathered Shelah. <sup>13</sup> And Arpachshad lived after he fathered Shelah 403 years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>14</sup> When Shelah had lived 30 years, he fathered Eber. <sup>15</sup> And Shelah lived after he fathered Eber 403 years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>16</sup> When Eber had lived 34 years, he fathered Peleg. <sup>17</sup> And Eber lived after he fathered Peleg 430 years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>18</sup> When Peleg had lived 30 years, he fathered Reu. <sup>19</sup> And Peleg lived after he fathered Reu 209 years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>20</sup> When Reu had lived 32 years, he fathered Serug. <sup>21</sup> And Reu lived after he fathered Serug 207 years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>22</sup> When Serug had lived 30 years, he fathered Nahor. <sup>23</sup> And Serug lived after he fathered Nahor 200 years and had other sons and daughters.

Terah's Descendants

<sup>27</sup> Now these are the generations of Terah. Terah fathered Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran fathered Lot. <sup>28</sup> Haran died in the
