lauradawesart Setting up my easel outside, feeling sunshine and the breeze, taking my mind to the gorgeous blossoms at East Holmes Fields.

This is the closest I can get to feeling like I'm plein air painting when working from a photo. It has certainly helped me to finally break out of the painting malaise I've been suffering the past few weeks.

chantaldupuis.art "Les crocus à Pierre". 36"x24" oil painting. Had fun with this one. Did them wet on wet in about 3hours! I was very unsure of the results, the last time I did this kind of painting was 5 years ago when I was learning from the Bob Ross videos!!!! I will definitely try that again!
