How to Juice:

Home:

Step 1 at night when using the Skin Juice Daily Diet.

- Massage a raspberry-sized amount onto a dry face with dry hands. Wet fingers and continue to massage. Aid removal with a Smudge Budge or face cloth if required.

Professional:

- This is the second cleanse step in a facial process for balanced skin types.

Retail talking points:

- A silky natural cream cleanser for those who are used to or prefer cream cleansers.
- An alternate cleanser for sensitive skin types who prefer not to use the oil balm Smudge Budge.
- Removes makeup.
- No need to double cleanse – one cleanser that does it all.

About this squeeze:

Cleansing:

- Formulation is enriched with coconut. This milky extract helps to deeply cleanse impurities from the skin but is rich in plant fatty acids to avoid drying or sensitising the skin.
- Naturally occurring AHA's (alpha hydroxy acids) work together to gently refine and exfoliate the skin, leaving it smooth, balanced and cleansed.
- Nutrient rich plant oils such, as sunflower and coconut oil, adhere to and remove impurities and makeup pigments.
- This cleanser works by using a healthy oil exchange - purifying, fresh, nutritious oils replace the oxidised oils and pollution from the day.
- Not suitable to use with false lashes.

Balancing:

- Natural fruit acids make Coconut Cream more acidic in nature, meaning it will help normalise and balance the skin's pH and strengthening the acid mantle, the skin's protective barrier function.
- A healthy barrier function boosts the skins' immunity to fight off bacteria and protects it against infection, irritation and dehydration.
- Banana extract is rich in antioxidants, potassium and vitamin A, helping to smooth the skin and balance areas of dryness.

In the Blender:
