Protects

Provides a dewy glow

Pregnancy + breastfeeding safe

How to Juice:

Home:

Step 1 at night when using the Skin Juice Daily Diet.

- Massage a blueberry-sized amount onto a dry face with dry hands. Wet fingers and continue to massage. Aid removal with a Smudge Budge or face cloth if required.

Professional:

- This is the first step in a facial process.
- Give your client that little extra luxury by cleansing the eye area after finishing a lash tint using Smudge Budge.

Retail talking points:

- Removes stubborn makeup – including eyes and lips
- Great at removing face paint for kids
- A great gentle cleanser to introduce tweens and teens to skincare
- Perfect for customers who experience rosacea, dermatitis etc – use in conjunction with Green Juice
- No need to double cleanse – one cleanser that does it all.

About this squeeze:

Deep cleansing:

- This cleansing balm removes makeup, including waterproof mascara and long-wear lipstick. Not suitable for use with false lashes.
- When this balm is warmed in fingertips, it melts into a nutritious oil that is molecularly compatible with the skin.
- The plant oil formulation will adhere to impurities, toxins and dirt, deeply cleansing blocked pores, without irritating or drying the skin.
- This cleanser works by using a healthy oil exchange - purifying, fresh, nutritious oils replace the oxidised oils and pollution from the day.

Calming:

- Essential fatty acids and plant sterols rebuild the skin's barrier to reduce irritation and inflammation.
- This balmy cleanser won't seep into or irritate the eyes.
- Nourishes dry skin and can help provide relief from the effects of eczema and psoriasis.

Protective:

- Smudge Budge is bursting with plant sterols and lipids to nourish the skin, help lock in hydration and restore the protective barrier of the skin.
- Antioxidant rich formulation that helps feed the skin to fight oxidative damage.

In the Blender:

Sunflower Seed Oil

Lightweight oil that dissolves oily blockages while softening and hydrating the skin.

Mango Seed Butter

Nourishing oil butter derived from the seed that calms sensitivity and sedates inflammation.

Organic Coconut Oil

Nutrient dense oil full of plant sterols and essential fatty acids that helps hydrate and heal the skin.

Pomegranate Seed Oil

Antioxidant rich oil that helps prevent collagen breakdown.

Tomato Seed Oil

Purifying antioxidant vegetable oil that helps fight against free radical damage.

Cucumber Seed Oil

Anti-inflammatory oil packed with antioxidants to soothe redness and irritation.

Organic Fennel Seed Oil

Detoxifying essential oil that helps protect the skin by neutralising bacteria.

Pumpkin Seed Oil

Protective essential fatty acids in this oil work together to help reduce inflammation and redness, as well as nourish and strengthen the skin.

Carrot Seed Oil

Essential oil rich in skin brightening and restorative vitamins A and C.

Organic Sweet Orange Peel Oil

Essential oil rich in skin brightening vitamin C, helps produce collagen, clear dark spots and prevent breakouts.
