Executive Polo

The combination of contrasting materials gives this table its instant appeal. The polished die-cast aluminium base aspect creates an infusion of modernity and sophistication. Polo suits an endless variety of table sizes. The flexibility of segmented base construction means you can have it built to suit your desired look and budget.

Executive Wedge

Wedge is an innovative table with a unique profile. Its geometric shaped base evokes a state-of-art aesthetic for the meeting room. The heavy duty aluminium structure supports an unlimited size, melamine, veneer or polyurethane top, with minimal components for easy dismantle.

Executive Jupiter

Jupiter is a collection for the upmarket office. Its simplistic beam design lends itself to a very architectural, advanced look. Jupiter's unique design takes the beam concept further with its integral cable management function. The deep structural beam allows for generous cable storage. Effortless to adapt, move or reconfigure, the Jupiter table is the complete solution for individuality in the office.

Executive Saturn

Saturn is a bespoke style for the office. It creates an ambience that goes beyond its façade. Featuring a highly durable steel beam base structure, Saturn is available in numerous lengths with a range of table top finishes, from veneer boat shape with a leather or vinyl inlay to a melamine D-end.

Executive Arrow

Arrow generates a gasp of appreciation by provoking wow factor in the office. The defined engineering and high quality structure characterises Arrow. This is supported by a finished polished steel and powdercoated base structure that allows modularity and long spans to suit the table top size and finish you require.

Executive Mercury

Mercury tables reap the rewards combining an elegant aesthetic with an ability to respond to specific user needs. Options include; stand alone, folding or a transportable base. Mercury allows for uniformity of style throughout the workplace from meeting rooms, training rooms through to breakout areas of the office.

Executive Folio

Folio evokes timeless elements of nature and warmth to the office. With strong, clean lines of woodgrain in natural veneer or timber grain melamine, Folio is available in a wide range of finishes. Solid construction and superior craftsmanship makes Folio the ideal table for the discerning executive.
