CUSTOM

In a sense, most of our seating designs are custom, because our clients are not limited to what they see in our brochure. There is the option to change the style of the legs, or the seat height, back height, or almost any specification.

Further to this, we do the “out of the ordinary” seating. Our commitment to our customers is such, that if “you can imagine it, we can make it”!
