Paid internship Program
Corporate Development Intern (Operations, Sales and Product Development)
at Artis
New York, NY

About Artis

Artis is the Latin word meaning: "skill, method, technique, conduct, character." From the way that they look, to the way that they perform, Artis brushes are designed to give you a better beauty experience. Artis is constantly innovating and striving to design products that create a better beauty experience. The culture of the organization itself is inspiring, curious and collaborative, which is beneficial not only to the creative aspects of work, but to their mission to offer products that reimagine what's possible for your beauty ritual. This is a paid internship.

About the position:

Artis is looking for a dynamic, organized, and dependable team player to join our team to support the Artis brand. We are currently seeking candidates with an interest in Corporate Development (ops., sales, product development, or finance). Activities will include gathering & running analytics, data processing, logistics, supply management, product fulfillment, research and retail support. We seek interns with strong organizational and multitasking skills, who can work in a fast-paced environment.

Desired Skills and Qualifications:

- Must reside in New York City, or be able to commute to NYC
- You have highly developed writing, researching, and organizational skills
- A minimum commitment of three days per week
- You are a current college student or recent graduate with deep knowledge and passion for consumer product companies
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office software and G-Suite
- The willingness to support a diverse and busy staff while contributing to the collective innovation
- Well organized, energetic, on-top-of-it go getter
- Someone who loves to learn, embrace failure and never gives up who thrives in fast-paced, collaborative environment.
