

Important Tips & Time Allocation for Last Day Revision
Try to reach home by 6pm, have food and take a nap of half an hour. Don't discuss anything with anyone. Don't entertain any thoughts regarding paper, best thing is to start thinking about audit.
We have allocated time to each topic, time is scientifically decided as per number of hours we spend on topic in regular studies, you will observe that time is less, so don't go in-depth and don't venture in new areas.
Use PM analysis file where all questions are sorted SA wise, topic wise , clause wise and all repeated questions are marked / Use ABC Analysis file to Identify most important topics in each SA and Chapter . You Can get it form auditguru.in/downloads ,preferably take print.
Use material which you have used for regular studies, its perfectly fine to quickly cover only those topics or chapters you know best.
Its fine to use other books and notes, cover charts , questions which you find easy, no need to study them in totality.
For SAs and Other topics. I have given, key to remember, charts , shortcuts in our regular book for all bulky and important topics, use it.
Try to cover all easy topics first, don't read line by line just revise orally, try to cover in short You can do your own ranking of topics and cover them as per your comfort
In CA something or the other will be left out so don't worry, cover things which you know fast and then think about anything else, do new topics at last.
Please stuck to time allotted, so that you can cover whole syllabus, if anything is left out use buffer time on Final day (120 min) to cover it.
Don't study in last 2 hours have food, take nap, go early, do time pass and crack jokes with friends

Dont overthink, dont over plan, be stress free , keep small targets cover most important things only, leave 20-30% things on last day. Beleive in yourself, you will recall earlier read concepts also.

First Cover Questions from PM + Don't Read Line By Line Just See Important Points to be Explained in each Answer. (USE PM Analysis File , Take Print of it)

Then if time permits use ABC Analysis File and Try to Cover A Category Topics From Each Chapter (Again keep printout ready with you)

If you got any doubt keep it posting on auditguru.in/discussion-points
