Compulsory Questions
5.1 VOUCHING – MEANING & CONSIDERATIONS

Q.1 Write short note on: Vouching.

or

Discuss the following: As an auditor what are the essentials points to be borne in mind while examining a voucher?

or

Define vouching. Also discuss the essential points to be borne in mind while examining a voucher.

or

State the factors to be considered to verify the validity of any transaction.

[Nov. 05 (4 Marks)]

[May 14 (5 Marks)]

[May 16 (4 Marks)]

Answer: Vouching:
- Vouching may be defined as act of examining vouchers. Its basic objective is to establish the authenticity of the transactions recorded in the primary books of account.
- Vouching may be classified as substantive audit procedure which aims at verifying the genuineness and validity of a transaction contained in the accounting records.
- It consists of comparing the entries in the books with the particulars in the vouchers as regards date, amount, name of party etc.
- Vouching is used to ensure that various transactions for the period are fairly & truly recorded in the books.

Considerations during Vouching:
(a) Verify that all transactions recorded in the books of accounts are supported by documentary evidence.
(b) No transaction has been recorded which does not related to business.
(c) To see that transaction has been recorded on and under the proper date.
(d) Ensure that date of voucher falls within the accounting period.
(e) Ensure that voucher is made out in the client’s name.
(f) Ensure that voucher is duly authorized.
(g) Whether accuracy has been observed while totaling, carry forward and recording an amount in the account.

Q.2 Discuss the following: In vouching payments, the auditor does not merely check proof that money has been paid away.

Answer: Vouching of Payments:
Statement is correct, as the object of vouching is not merely to ascertain that money has been paid away, but also to obtain reasonable assurance with regard to various assertions like authorisation, completeness, cutoff, classification, validity etc.

Considerations during vouching: Refer Q. No. 1

5.2 - AUDITING OF CASH TRANSACTIONS

Q.3 Casting or Totalling is an important tool of audit for an auditor. Comment.

[Nov. 14 (4 Marks)]

Answer: Casting or Totalling:
- Casting is an important tool for an auditor as it helps the auditor in detecting the fraud associated with wrong totalling.
Sometimes the total of an expenses like wages are inflated by over totaling the column in which the expenses are entered. Such a fraud can be detected only if the totals of the wage bill are checked. Similarly, a cashier may misappropriate receipts from account receivables by under totaling the receipts column of the cash book. Such shortages in cash may be covered up by over totaling. Such frauds can be detected only if the totals of the cash book and the general ledger are checked.

- The frauds that may be detected with the help of casting may be listed as below:
  1. under casting the receipt side of the cash book;
  2. Over casting the payment side of the cash;
  3. fictitious entries being made in the cash column to show that amounts have been deposited in the account when, in fact, no deposit has been made;
  4. posting an amount of cash sale to the credit of a party and subsequently withdrawing the amount; and
  5. wrong totals or balances being carried forward in the cash book or in the ledger.

5.3 - AUDIT OF PAYMENTS

Q.4 How would you vouch the following:

(a) Personal Expenses of Directors met by a company.

Answer: Personal Expenses of Directors:

While vouching entries for purchases with the invoices, the auditor should consider the followings:

1. Ensure that the date of invoice falls within the accounting period for which audit is to be performed;
2. Ensure that the invoice is made out in the name of the client;
3. Ensure that the credit to the supplier has been given with the full amount of the invoice;
4. Ascertain the nature of goods purchased and ensure that the goods purchased are those that are regularly dealt in by the concern and that the price payable has been correctly arrived at;
5. Trace the recording of purchases to an appropriate nominal account or accounts;
6. Ensure that the invoice has been verified by the accountant as well as by the store-keeper to indicate that the delivery of goods have been taken by him.; and
7. Ensure that payment has been made only after authorisation by the manager or some other official, competent to sanction payment, has authorised its payment.
Discuss the special precautions in verification of purchase invoice.

Answer: Special Precautions in verification of purchase Invoice:

1. Adjustment of Invoice Amount: In case, the total amount of the invoice has been adjusted in separate accounts, the entire amount so adjusted should be added together to confirm that there has not been error under adjustment.

2. Duplicate copy of Invoice: Ensure that if the payment is adjusted on the basis of duplicate invoice, the original invoice also needs to be marked as paid at the same time.

3. Compliance of special conditions: If supplies are received on certain special conditions, verified that these conditions are the same as were agreed to at the time the order was placed, e.g., payment of freight and insurance charges of goods while in transit, etc.

4. Timings of Payment: If the amount of an invoice was payable after the lapse of some time, subsequent to the receipt of goods, it should be ascertained that it has not been paid earlier and the benefit of cash discount, if any, has been obtained.

5. Goods purchased for personal use: Where goods have been purchased for the use of an officer but the invoice is made out in the name of the entity, it should be seen that the cost has been charged to the officer concerned and not to the Purchases Account of entity.

6. Purchases from related parties: If purchases are made from the associated concerns, ensure that such purchases are made only under an appropriate sanction.

7. Inspection before taking delivery: Ensure that the goods were inspected on arrival and the delivery note and the goods inward note should be examined.

8. Goods delivered directly to customer: The auditor should make appropriate inquiries in order to establish that the transaction was appropriately authorised by a responsible official. A copy of the delivery note signed by the account receivable on delivery of the goods should be examined, and it should be ascertained whether the account receivable is a regular purchaser of the company's goods and not an employee of the company wishing to take advantage of a weakness in the system.

A trader is worried that despite of substantial increase in sales compared to earlier year, there is considerable fall in Gross Profit after satisfying himself that sales and expenses are correctly recorded and that the valuation of inventories is on consistent basis, he wants to ensure that purchases have been truthfully recorded.

How will you proceed with this assignment? [May 10 (10 Marks)]

Answer: Verification of Purchases:

(A) Study and evaluation of internal control system: w.r.t. following:

- Segregation of duties in respect of various activities like (a) Requisitioning the goods (b) Ordering the goods requisitioned (c) Receiving the goods ordered (d) Preparing the payment voucher.
- Ensure that printed and pre-numbered forms should be used for purchase requisitions, purchase orders, receiving reports and vouchers.
- Authorisation procedures should be designed for all various control points - requesting the goods, ordering the goods requisitioned, receiving the goods ordered and preparing the payment voucher.
- Ensure that there is adequate separation of duties and proper authorisation procedures with regard to processing and recording of purchase transactions.
(B) Vouching of purchases transactions: The auditor should vouch credit purchases in the following manner:

- Ensure that the date of invoice falls within the accounting period for which audit is to be performed;
- Ensure that the invoice is made out in the name of the client;
- Ensure that the credit to the supplier has been given with the full amount of the invoice;
- Ascertain the nature of goods purchased and ensure that the goods purchased are those that are regularly dealt in by the concern and that the price payable has been correctly arrived at;
- Trace the recording of purchases to an appropriate nominal account or accounts;
- Ensure that the invoice has been verified by the accountant as well as by the store-keeper to indicate that the delivery of goods have been taken by him; and
- Ensure that payment has been made only after authorisation by the manager or some other official, competent to sanction payment, has authorised its payment.

(C) Perform Analytical procedures: Compare item-wise and location-wise both quantity and value of purchases for the current period with the corresponding figures for the previous period and ensure that major variations are explained and justified. Various analytical ratios should also be calculated and compare.

(c) Sale of Empties

Answer: Vouching of Sale of Empties:

When the empties or containers in which goods necessarily have to be supplied are costly, the manufacturer normally agrees to purchase them back at a reduced price as compared to the one charged for them. Therefore check whether

1. Separate account of issue and receipt of empties has been prepared.
2. In separate maintained a/c check how many empties lies in warehouse and how many are with customers.
3. Check how many empties customers may return after the close of the year.
4. Check whether proper provision has been made against the contingency of the containers being returned by customers and that for the wear and tear.
5. Check the amount of sale with entry in cash book.
6. See the sold empties are reduced from the stock.

(d) Consignment Sales

Answer: Vouching of Consignment Sales:

1. Verify the terms of agreement between the consignor and the consignee to ascertain the terms and conditions regarding commission and other expenses.
2. Ensure that the goods consigned are not treated as ordinary sales.
3. Ensure that the gross sale proceeds as mentioned in the account Sales has been credited to the Consignment Account and debited to the consignee’s account.
4. Ascertain that credit has been taken only for the profit on the goods sold through the consignee before the year end. No profit should be taken for the profit on goods remaining in the hands of the consignee.
5. Ensure that the stock lying with the consignee at the end should be taken in the balance sheet at cost on a consistent basis and credited to the Consignment A/c to arrive at the result of the consignment transactions.
6. Obtain confirmation of the balance in the account of the consignee from the consignee.
7. In case, goods are consigned at invoice price, auditor should ensure that the necessary adjustments to remove the loading have been made.
8. Examine the adjustments made at the year end in respect of the goods not yet sold, commission and the expense incurred by consignee.

(e) Goods sent out on sale or return basis.

Answer; Vouching of Goods sent on sale or return basis:

1. Check maintenance of separate memoranda records of goods sent out on sale or return. Only after approval from customer, personal account of customer is debited and the sales account is credited.
2. Ensure that the price of such goods is unloaded from the sales account and the debtor’s record before the approval from customer.
3. In respect of the goods for which approval period has expired, ensure that either goods have been received back or customer’s account have been debited.
4. In respect of the goods for which approval period has not expired till the close of the year and lying with the party, ensure that cost of such goods has been included in the closing stock.
5.8 – CUT OFF ARRANGEMENT

Q. 26 Write short note on: Cut Off procedures.

Answer: Cut Off Arrangement:

- Meaning: It refers to segregation of transaction of one period from the other so that the result of working of each period can be correctly ascertained. The arrangement that is made to ensure such separation is technically known as ‘cut-off procedure’. It is part of the internal control system of the organization.

- Applicability: This procedure is generally applied to transactions affected by the continuity of business like sales, purchase and stock. Cut-off procedures are also relevant in other areas, such as determining the cut-offs for cash and bank balances.

- Advantages: This procedure ensures that goods purchased during a year have been included in inventory and the liability has been provided in the case of credit purchase. Similarly goods sold have been excluded from the inventories and credit has been taken for the sales.

5.9 – AUDIT OF LEDGERS

Q. 27 Explain the steps involved in carrying out the audit of ledgers.

Answer: Steps Involved in carrying out audit of ledgers:

1. Examine the extent and effectiveness of internal check;
2. Tracing the opening balances from the last year’s records;
3. Checking the postings from various books of prime entry and, if they are kept on the self-balancing system, also tallying the totals of balances in subsidiary ledgers with those in the total of control account;
4. Checking the closing balances of individual accounts on the balance schedule;
5. Checking the totals of ledger accounts, trial balance, schedules and groupings;
6. Verifying the ledger balances as below:
   - Personal accounts - either with the statements of account or confirmation of balances obtained from the parties;
   - Impersonal accounts like fixed assets - with the schedules containing details of assets and liabilities.
   - Nominal accounts - by reference to the documentary evidence;
7. Scrutinizing the accounts generally and, in particular, examining the composition of final balances; and
8. Ascertaining the extent of clearance of the balances brought forward from the last year particularly those relating to receivables and payables, sale or disposal of fixed assets and of inventories.

Q. 28 List out some examples of fraud that can be done by ledger keeper in Bought Ledger and Sales Ledger.

Answer: Examples of Fraud:

(A) Bought Ledger:

1. Adjusting fictitious or duplicate invoices as purchases in the accounts of suppliers and subsequently misappropriating the amounts when payments are made to the suppliers in respect of these invoices.
2. Suppressing the Credit Notes issued by suppliers and withdrawing the corresponding amounts not claimed by them.
3. Withdrawing amounts unclaimed by suppliers, for one reason or another by showing that the same have been paid to them.
4. Accepting purchase invoices at prices considerably higher than their market prices and collecting the excess amount, paid in cash, from the suppliers.

(B) Sales Ledger:
1. Teeming and Lading.
2. Misappropriating the amount collected from a customer and subsequently adjusting his account by crediting the amount on account of allowance or a rebate for excess price charged.
3. Crediting the amount received from a customer to the account of another customer and subsequently withdrawing the amount wrongly credited.
4. Writing off the amount receivable to bad debt account and misappropriating the amount received in payment of the debt.

Q.29 Write short note on: Scrutiny of General Ledger. [May 06, Nov. 16 (4 Marks)]
Answer: Scrutiny of General Ledger:
1. The General Ledger contains all the balances which are ultimately included in the Profit and Loss Account and the Balance Sheet. Hence it should be examined in last.
2. Entries in the General Ledger are posted in a summary form from the subsidiary books like Cash Book, Journal, Sales Book, Purchase Book etc. The auditor should see that correct amounts are posted in the correct account on the correct side. No entry should be left unposted or posted twice.
3. Ensure that all items of income adjusted for accrued and received in advance. All items of expenses must be adjusted for outstanding and prepaid.
4. Ensure that the totals are made correctly and there is no casting error. It should also be ascertained that correct amount are carried forward on correct side.
5. The balances in the General Ledger should be traced to the trial balance and from the trial balance to the final accounts. Total of debit side and credit side of the trial balance must tally.

Q.30 What points shall an auditor keep in mind while auditing an account of Bought Ledger having a debit balance?
Answer: Points to be kept in mind while auditing bought ledger with debit balance:
1. Debit Balance in the bought ledger may represent the amount receivable on account of goods returned, rebate allowed by the supplier or advance paid against an order. The auditor should consider the following points while auditing:
2. Confirm that the advance against the order had been paid in pursuance of a recognised trade practice, also that subsequently goods have been received against the advance.
3. Ensure that debit balance may not be due to some error, for example, cost of goods purchased may be wrongly debited to the account of the supplier, instead of the Purchase Account.
4. Ascertain that the debit balance is good and recoverable and if it is not considered recoverable, a provision against the same has been made.
5. If the debit balance represents a loan to a director or officer of the company, the same should be separately disclosed in the Balance Sheet in accordance with the provisions contained in Schedule III to the Act.
6. The maximum account due from the directors or other officers of the company at any time during the year should also be disclosed alongwith the names of companies.

* Compulsory Questions
6.1 - CAPITAL AND REVENUE EXPENDITURE

Q.1 Indicate Expenses which are essentially of a revenue nature, if incurred for creating an asset, are also regarded as expenditure of capital nature. [May 14 (4 Marks)]

Answer: Expenses of Revenue Nature regarded as Capital Expenditure:
1. Material and wages when expended on the construction of a building or erection of machinery.
2. Legal expenses incurred in connection with the purchase of land or building.
3. Freight when incurred in respect of purchase of plant and machinery.
4. Major repairs of a fixed asset that increases its productivity.
5. Wages paid on installation costs incurred in Plant & Machinery.
6. Interest paid for the qualifying period as per AS-16 i.e. before the asset is constructed.

Q.2 Write short note on: Deferred Revenue Expenditure.

Answer: Deferred Revenue Expenditure:
- Revenue expenditure, whose benefit extends to more than one accounting period are known as deferred revenue expenditure.
- As per accountancy principles only that part of the expenditure which is pertaining to the accounting period can be charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss of the year, remaining amount should be carried forward in the Balance Sheet and it should be written off against the future income.
- Part of such revenue expenditure which is not yet charge to Statement of Profit and Loss is to be treated as assets for the purpose of disclosure in the balance sheet for the time till the benefit of such expenditure is fully exhausted.
- Examples of deferred revenue expenditure are expenditure on an advertisement campaign to launch a product in the market, discount allowed on subscription to debentures, development expenses in the case of mines and plantations, etc.
- While verifying deferred revenue expenditure, the auditor must satisfy himself that:
  1. it is proper to defer the expenditure;
  2. the period of amortisation of the expenditure is reasonable;
  3. the expenditure shown to have been incurred during the year actually occurred during the year and there is proper authority for the expenditure and for its deferral;
  4. the criteria which previously justified the deferral of the expenditure continue to be met and the expected future revenue / other benefits related to the expenditure continue to exceed the amount of unamortized expenditure.
  5. the necessary principles laid down under AS 26 “Intangible Assets” have been examined, to ensure whether such kind of deferment is allowed to be made or not.

Q.3 Distinguish between Capital expenditure and Deferred revenue expenditure. [Nov. 07 (4 Marks)]

Answer: Capital Expenditure vs. deferred Revenue Expenditure
(a) Capital expenditure result in acquisition of new fixed assets or increase in future benefits from existing fixed assets beyond pre-assessed level.
Deferred revenue expenditure are expenditure of a revenue nature which bring in future benefits without creating a tangible or intangible fixed assets or by way of improvement in the existing assets.
(b) Capital expenditure adds to the net worth of the concern. Deferred revenue expenditure is not considered in calculating net worth.
Q.3A Mention the purpose for which capital expenditure is incurred.

Answer: Purpose for which capital expenditure is incurred:

A capital expenditure may be incurred for the under mentioned purposes-

(a) Acquiring fixed assets, i.e., assets of a permanent or a semi-permanent nature, which are held not for resale but for use with a view to earning profits.

(b) Making additions to the existing fixed assets.

(c) Increasing earning capacity of the business.

(d) Reducing the cost of production.

(e) Acquiring a benefit of enduring nature of a valuable right.

The different forms that capital expenditure takes are: (i) land; (ii) building; (iii) plant and machinery; (iv) electric installations; (v) premium paid for the lease of a building; (vi) development expenditure on land; and (vii) goodwill; etc.

6.2 - DEPRECIATION

Q.4 Define Depreciation and discuss various purposes of providing depreciation.

Or

Write short note on: Purposes of providing depreciation.

Answer: Depreciation and purpose of providing depreciation:

AS 10 "Property, Plant and Equipment" defines depreciation as the systematic allocation of the depreciable amount of an asset over its useful life. Depreciable amount is the cost of an asset, or other amount substituted for cost less, its residual value.

Purposes of Providing depreciation:

(a) To provide the funds for the replacement of assets: This is accomplished by retaining the amount of depreciation charged in the profit and loss account in the business.

(b) To determine true cost of manufactured goods: As the value of fixed assets depletes gradually by consumption during the process of production, it is necessary that such consumption of value be charged in the accounts for determination of the true cost of production.

(c) To determine the profit or loss for the year: Depreciation being an expense represented by the loss in value of fixed assets arising on use, it is charged to the profit and loss account for determining the profit or loss during a year.

(d) To show a true and fair value of entity's assets in the balance sheet: since the original costs of fixed assets gradually decreases due to use and other factors, it is improper to continue to carry such assets at original costs. Therefore, the amount of depreciation charged in the profit and loss account representing the loss in value of the assets is deducted from the original cost on a cumulative basis so as to reflect in the balance sheet a true and fair value of the fixed assets.
Q.4A

Is there any statutory necessity to make disclosure of depreciation in company's accounts?

Answer: Disclosure of depreciation in company's accounts

Disclosure of depreciation in the accounts is a statutory necessity due to below mentioned provisions:

- Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 needs disclosure in the financial statements about the depreciation method used and the useful lives of the assets for computing depreciation, if they are different from the life specified in the Schedule II.

- Schedule III "General Considerations for preparation of Balance Sheet and Statement of Profit and Loss of a Company", to the Companies Act, 2013, requires separate disclosure of depreciation charged and impairment losses/reversals along with a reconciliation of the gross and net carrying amounts of each class of assets at the beginning and end of the reporting period showing additions, disposals, acquisitions through business combinations and other adjustments.

- AS 6 requires following information to be disclosed in the financial statements;
  (i) the historical cost or other amount substituted for historical cost of each class of depreciable assets;
  (ii) total depreciation for the period for each class of assets; and
  (iii) the related accumulated depreciation.

- AS 6 also requires disclosure of below mentioned information in the financial statements alongwith the disclosure of other accounting policies:
  (i) depreciation method used; and
  (ii) the useful lives of the assets for computing depreciation, if they are different from the life specified in the Schedule.

6.3 - RESERVES AND PROVISIONS

Q.5

Distinguish Between: Reserves and Provisions.

Answer: Reserves and Provisions:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Reserves</th>
<th>Provisions</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>It is an appropriation of profit</td>
<td>It is a charge against Profit.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>They are not intended to meet any liability, contingency or diminution in the value of assets, though may be made for some specific purposes, like redemption of debentures.</td>
<td>They are made to provide for depreciation, renewal or a known liability or a disputed claim.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reserves cannot be created unless there is a profit except a few like revaluation reserve</td>
<td>They must be created whether or not there is profit.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reserves are generally optional except few ones like creation of CRR, DRR, etc</td>
<td>Provisions are not optional and have to be made as per generally accepted accounting principles.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Q.6 Write a short note on "Provisions versus Specific Reserves".

Answer: Provisions:
- Provisions are amounts charged against revenue to provide for depreciation, renewal or diminution in the value of assets or a known liability the amount of which cannot be determined with substantial accuracy or a claim which is disputed.
- Amounts contributed or transferred from profits to make good the diminution in assets values due to the fact that some of them have been lost or destroyed, as a result of some natural calamity or debts have proved to be irrecoverable are also described as provisions.
- Provisions are normally charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss before arriving at the amount of profit.

Specific Reserves:
- Specific reserves are created for some definite purpose out of the profits of the company. The purpose may be anything connected with the business which the Article of Association or, the directors want to be provided for, such as dividend equalization, replacement of fixed assets, expansion of the organization, Income-tax liability for future foreign exchange fluctuation etc.
- Though the concerned amounts are carried under the earmarked heads, these are available for distribution as dividend on the recommendation of directors but subject to the approval of shareholders, since these are created by appropriation of profits.
- To create any specific reserve, existence of profit is essential.
- Some of the specific reserves may be required under the contractual obligations or legal compulsion, for example: (i) funds for redemption of debentures and (ii) development rebate reserve.

6.4 - VERIFICATION OF ASSETS

Q.7 Write short note on: General Principles of Verification of Assets. [May 06 (4 Marks)]

Answer: General Principles of Verification of Assets:
Verification of assets is an audit procedure, normally carried out at the year end to confirm the ownership, valuation and existence of items at the Balance Sheet date. Primarily verification of assets is the responsibility of the management.

The auditor, however, should verify the assets so as to confirm the followings:

(a) Existence: to ensure that the assets were in existence on the date of Balance Sheet.
(b) Purpose: to ensure that the assets have been acquired for the purpose of the business and under a proper authority.
(c) Ownership: to ensure that the right of ownership of the assets vested in or belonged to the undertaking.
(d) Charge: to ensure that assets were free from any lien or charge not disclosed in the Balance Sheet.
(e) Valuation: to ensure that assets have been correctly valued having regard to their physical condition; and
(f) Disclosure: to ensure that their values are correctly disclosed in the Balance Sheet.

6.5 - VERIFICATION OF NON CURRENT ASSETS

Q.9 How will you vouch or verify: Leasehold properties [Nov. 09 (5 Marks)]

Or

Write short note on: Verification of assets acquired on lease. [Nov. 11 (5 Marks), Nov. 14 (4 Marks)]

Answer: Verification of Assets acquired on lease:

1. Inspect the lease agreement to ascertain the amount of premium payable and other terms and conditions and its registration. A lease exceeding one year is not valid unless it has been granted by a registered instrument (Sec. 107 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882).
2. Ascertain that all the necessary conditions prescribed by the lease, are being duly complied with.
3. Examine the counterpart of the tenants’ agreements, if part of the leasehold property has been sublet.
4. Ensure that the outlay as well as any legal expenses incurred to acquire the lease which are shown as an asset in the Balance Sheet are being written off at a rate which could completely wipe off the asset over the unexpired term of the lease.
5. Ensure that assets acquired under finance lease are segregated from the assets owned.

Q.10 How will you verify the Building? [May 14 (4 Marks)]

Answer: Verification of Building:

1. Examine the title deeds of buildings to ascertain the ownership of the building. If the title deeds are kept in custody of third party, obtain a certificate to that effect and ensure whether there exists any mortgage over the property.
2. Verify the original cost of buildings with reference to the conveyance deed. If the building is self constructed, verify the original cost with reference to the cost as recorded in the books of account.
3. Ensure that appropriate depreciation has been provided. In case depreciation has not provided, a note to this effect should be given in the statement of Profit and Loss.
4. In case of leasehold building, examine lease deed, to ascertain the cost, amortisation, etc. and also ensure compliance of all terms and conditions as contained in the lease deed.
5. Ensure that buildings have been carried at its appropriate value as per the provisions of AS-10, "Property, Plant and Equipment".

6. In case of a company, compliance of requirements of Schedule II and III to the Companies Act, 2013, needs to be ensured.

7. Examine that the relevant particulars of buildings have been entered in the fixed assets record maintained by the client.

Q.11 How will you vouch or verify: Patterns, Dies and Loose Tools Etc. [May 13 (4 Marks)]

Answer: Verification of Patterns, Dies and Loose Tools:
(a) Obtain a list of inventory of such assets as well as details of date of acquisition, invoice etc.
(b) Examine whether the entity exercises appropriate control over its storage and issuance.
(c) Examine the method of accounting followed by the entity and ensure that the method is followed consistently. In case of any change ensure disclosures in the financial statements.
(d) Ensure that the inventory does not include any worn out or defective articles the life of which has already run out.

Q.12 How will you verify the following: [Nov. 15 (4 Marks)]

(a) Intangible Assets

Answer: Verification of Intangible Assets:
1. Auditor should ensure that intangible asset should be recognised only if (a) it is probable that the future economic benefits that are attributable to the asset will flow to the enterprise; and (b) the cost of the asset can be measured reliably.
2. Ensure that at initial stages, intangible asset should be measured at cost. After initial recognition an intangible asset should be carried at its cost less any accumulated amortisation and any impairment losses.
3. Ensure that if an item covered does not meet the definition of an intangible asset, expenditure to acquire it or generate it internally is recognised as an expense when it is incurred.
4. In some cases, an asset may incorporate both intangible and tangible elements that are, in practice, inseparable. Ensure that in determining whether such an asset should be treated under AS 10, "Property, Plant and Equipments", or as an intangible asset under AS 26, "Intangible Assets" appropriate judgement has been taken to assess as to which element is predominant.
5. Auditor should also ensure that proper disclosure is made in the financial statements about the carrying amount, amortisation methods, useful lives, etc. in compliance of AS 26 and Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013.

(b) Goodwill [May 05 (4 Marks)]

Answer: Verification of Goodwill:
(a) Ensure that goodwill has been recognized in the books in compliance of AS 26. As per AS – 26, "Intangible Assets", internally generated goodwill is not to be recognised as an asset, as it is not an identifiable resource controlled by the enterprise that can be measured reliably at cost.
(b) Examine the vendors' agreement to ascertain the amount of goodwill.
(c) Ensure that whenever business is acquired at a price, payable in cash or otherwise, which is in excess of the value of net assets taken over, such excess amount is the goodwill.
(d) Ensure that only the amount paid to the vendors not represented by tangible or intangible assets, the value of which can be measured reliably has been debited to goodwill account.

(e) Ensure goodwill has not recognised in the books by revaluation of assets or writing back the amount of goodwill earlier written off.

(f) Ensure that the goodwill not yet written off has been properly disclosed under the head "Non-Current Assets" as per Schedule III requirements.

(g) Ensure amortisation of goodwill over a reasonable period as a matter of financial prudence.

(c) Patents

Answer: Verification of Patents:

(a) Obtain a list of patents owned by the client as on the balance sheet date and verify ownership of a patent by inspection of the certificate issued in respect of grant of the patent.

(b) Examine the agreement if it has been so as to find out the total cost.

(c) In case of outright purchase of patent rights, the purchase consideration, legal fees and registration charges should be included in cost. When they are developed within the organisation, all costs incurred on their development including legal and registration expenses for registration of the patent should constitute the cost.

(d) Check that the patent rights are alive and legally enforceable.

(e) Check that renewal fees have been paid on due dates and being charged to revenue. The last renewal receipt should be examined to ascertain that the patent has not lapsed.

(f) Ascertain that the rate at which the value of each patent is being written off is adequate since the amount paid in respect of each patent should be amortised over its life or a lesser period if its commercial life is shorter; its value would be completely written off by the time it would cease to have a commercial value.

(g) Ascertain that only the actual cost incurred in the process has been capitalised.

(d) Trade Marks and Copyrights

Answer: Verification of Trade Marks and Copyrights:

1. Obtain duly signed schedule of Trade Marks and Copyrights and confirm that all of them are shown in the Balance Sheet.

2. Examine the written agreement in case of assignment of Copyrights or transfer of trade marks.

3. Ensure that trade marks and copyrights have been duly registered under respective laws.

4. Verify existence of copyright by reference to contract between the author & the entity and note down the terms of payment of royalty.

5. See that the value has been determined properly and the costs incurred for the purpose of obtaining the trade marks and copyrights have been capitalised.

6. Ascertain that the legal life of the trade marks and copyrights have not expired.

7. Ensure that amount paid for both the intangible assets is properly amortised having regard to appropriate legal and commercial considerations, as per the provisions of AS 26 on Intangible Assets.
Q.13 How will you vouch or verify: Capital Work in progress

Answer: Verification of Capital Work in Progress:

Capital Work-in-Progress represents assets under installation. It may be plant or machinery under construction, or construction project for establishment of a new factory. To verify the same, the auditor should take the following steps:

(a) Examine Board Meeting minute book to check authorisation of capital expenditure.
(b) Obtain the break up in details of the amount shown in the Balance Sheet under this head.
(c) Check amount incurred on purchase of plant, machinery or other assets with reference to the stage of completion, and amount paid to the suppliers.
(d) Examine the allocation of common costs to the Capital WIP.
(e) Ensure that the assets already put to commercial use has not been covered under Capital WIP.
(f) Verify that only expenses incurred up to pre commissioning stage are capitalised under this head.
(g) Obtain Architect's certificate to ascertain the quantum of the Capital WIP.
(h) Ensure proper disclosure of Capital WIP in the Balance Sheet under the head Non Current Assets.

Q.14 How will you vouch or verify: Investment in the Shares and Debentures of Subsidiary.

Answer: Verification of Investment in Shares and Debenture of Subsidiary:

1. Obtain a complete schedule of all such investments held, showing particulars as regards the name of the subsidiary company, class of shares or debenture, date of purchase, number of units, book value, dividend received etc.
2. Verify the particulars entered in the schedule with the relevant account in the General Ledger.
3. Examine all the investments by inspection of the securities, share scrips or certificates, debenture bonds, etc. If any of the securities are held by bankers, obtain a certificate from the banker which should also disclose the charge, if they are subject to any such charge.
4. These investments should be shown separately as per the requirements of the provisions contained in Part I of Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013.
5. The shares or debentures of a subsidiary are valued at cost.
6. Ensure that a provision has been made by the holding company for proportionate amount, in case subsidiary has suffered a loss.

Q.15 How will you vouch or verify:

(a) Endowment Policies

Answer: Verification of Endowment Policies:

1. Ascertain the specific purpose for which the endowment policy is taken, e.g., Sinking Fund policies for redemption of debentures, redemption of leases or policies taken for other similar purposes, etc.
2. Verify the terms and conditions of policies and ensure that all such conditions are in force and being followed.
3. Check that premium has been deposited in time and the policy is in force.
4. Examine that proper disclosures have been made in the financial statement in respect of items for which the policy has been taken.
Answer: Verification of Assets Abroad:

1. In respect of immovable properties situated abroad, examine the title deeds.
2. If title deeds are not available for inspection, a certificate should be obtained from the person in whose custody title deeds are kept.
3. Ensure that certificate obtained clearly discloses that the properties are free from any charge or encumbrance.
4. Ensure that the immovable properties abroad have been properly classified and disclosed.

6.6 - AUDIT OF INVENTORIES

Q.16
Comment on the "Responsibility for properly determining the quantity and value of inventories rests with the management of the entity". [Nov. 10 (4 Marks)]

Answer: Responsibility for determination of quantity and value of inventories:

Guidance Note on Audit of inventories specifies the following:

- The responsibility for properly determining the quantity and value of inventories rests with the management of the entity.
- The management satisfies this responsibility by carrying out appropriate procedures which will normally include verification of all items of inventory at least once in every financial year.
- This responsibility is not reduced even where the auditor attends any physical count of inventories in order to obtain audit evidence.
- In any auditing situation, the auditor employs appropriate procedures to obtain reasonable assurance to corroborate the management's assertions regarding the following:
  1. Existence: that all recorded inventories exist as at the year-end.
  2. Ownership: that all inventories owned by the entity are recorded and that all recorded inventories are owned by the entity.
  3. Valuation: that the stated basis of valuation of inventories is appropriate and properly applied, and that the condition of inventories is recognised in their valuation.

Q.17
As an auditor, what would you do in the following situation: The company has sent semi-finished goods to third parties for further processing, which is lying with them at the end of the year.

Answer: Semi-finished goods lying with third parties:

Semi-finished goods are the part of inventories and therefore such goods, though, not present with the company, should be included in the closing inventory. The auditor is required to undertake the following steps:

(i) Ensure that semi-finished goods (WIP) have been included for valuation of inventory.

(ii) Obtain confirmation letters from third parties in respect of quantity lying with them as at the end of the year. The auditor may also consider carrying out the appropriate audit procedure to obtain assurance about the condition of such inventory as per the requirement of SA 501 "Audit Evidence – Specific considerations for Selected items".

(iii) Guidance Note on Audit of inventories recommends that auditor should carefully assess the stage of completion of WIP for assessing the appropriateness of its valuation and may perform the following:
   - Examine the production / costing records
   - Hold discussions with the personnel concerned.
   - Obtain expert opinion wherever necessary.

(iv) Check that the disclosure requirements as specified in Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013 and AS 2, "Valuation of Inventories" have been followed.
Q.18 How will you vouch/Verify the following: Work in Progress.

Answer: Verification of Work in Progress:

To carefully assess the stage of completion of the WIP for assessing the appropriateness of its valuation, the auditor may perform the following:

--examine the production/costing records (e.g., cost sheets),
- hold discussions with the personnel concerned, and
- obtain expert opinion, where necessary.

If physical verification of WIP is impracticable, the auditor should lay greater emphasis on ascertaining whether the system, from which the WIP is ascertained, is reliable.

Cost sheets of WIP should be verified as follows:

(a) Ascertain that the cost sheets are duly attested by the works manager.
(b) Test the correctness of the cost as disclosed by the cost records by verification of quantities and cost of materials, wages and other charges included in the cost sheets by reference to the records maintained in respect thereof.
(c) Compare the unit cost or job cost as shown by the cost sheet with the estimated cost.
(d) Ensure that the allocation of overhead expenses had been made on a rational basis.
(e) Compare the cost sheet in detail with that of the previous year. If they vary materially, investigate the cause thereof.
(f) Ensure that the Work-in-Progress as at Balance Sheet date has been appropriately disclosed in Balance Sheet as per the requirements of Schedule III.

Q.19 Write short notes on: Physical attendance by auditor during inventory taking. [May 09 (5 Marks)]

Answer: Physical attendance by auditor during inventory taking:

(a) The physical verification of stock is the responsibility of the management. The auditor may find it appropriate to attend the stock taking, if the inventory value is material in his opinion.
(b) The extent of participation in inventory taking depends upon the internal control system prevailing, results of examination of inventory records and analytical review procedures.
(c) When auditor attend inventory taking, he ensure that the instructions given for inventory taking is followed.
(d) He test checks few items by himself for their existence and quantum. He selects to test high value items importantly.
(e) The physical conditions of stock - like its age, deterioration, obsolescence etc., are looked into by auditor.
(f) The auditor reviews stores records and notes down major discrepancies for reconciling them in a subsequent date.

Answer: Verification of Loss of Inventory by theft:
1. The most important evidence for verification will be the First Information Report (FIR) filed in the Police Station.
2. The contents of the FIR need to be cross checked with the financial records and inventory records.
3. If no FIR is lodged, then ascertain the reasons and their genuineness.
4. Ensure that the quantity and value of the stolen inventory is not included in the closing inventory.
5. Verify whether such inventory was insured and whether theft claim was lodged with the insurance company.

6.7 - AUDIT OF TRADE RECEIVABLES, SHORT TERM LOANS AND ADVANCES

Q.25 Give your comments and observations on the following: Balance confirmations from trade receivables/trade payables can only be obtained for balances standing in their accounts at the year-end.

Answer: Balance Confirmations from trade receivables / trade payables:
- Guidance Note on Audit of Debtors, Loans and Advances” recommends that the trade receivables may be requested to confirm the balance either:
  (i) As at the date of the balance sheet; or
  (ii) As at any other selected date which is reasonably close to the date of the balance sheet.
- The date should be settled by the auditor in consultation with the entity.
- Where the auditor decides to confirm the trade receivables at a date other than the balance sheet date, he should examine the movements in trade receivable balances which occur between the confirmation date and the balance sheet date and obtain sufficient evidence to satisfy himself that trade receivable balances stated in the balance sheet are not materially mis-stated.
- Therefore, it is not necessary that balances of trade receivables/ trade payables should necessarily be verified only at the end of the year only.

Answer: Refer Q. No. 82 of Chapter No. 10

Q.27 Mention disclosure requirements of Trade Receivables in the financial statements of a company.

   - Amounts due by private companies in which any director is a director or member

Q.28 You are the auditor and examining the book debts of a company. Give some indications which leads to doubt about recovery as uncollectable debts from trade receivables and advances.

Answer: Indications leading to doubt about recovery as to uncollectable debts:
1. Non adherence of credit terms.
2. Payments are received in parts in relation to the total outstanding balance.
3. Nonpayment of old bill, while later bills have been fully settled.
4. Dishonour of the cheques received from the trade receivables.
5. The debt is under litigation, arbitration, or dispute.
6. Unwillingness or inability of the trade receivable to pay the dues, e.g., a trade receivable has either become insolvent, or has closed down his business, or is not traceable.
7. Amounts due from employees, who have been terminated from the employment.
8. Collection barred by law of limitation.

Q.29 How will you vouch/verify the following: Bad Debts.

Answer: Verification of Bad Debts:
1. Obtain a schedule of bad debt written off during the year and trace the amount written off with the accounting records.
2. Major amount of bad debts in the schedule be taken for scrutiny.
3. Check that the amount considered in write off had been overdue for long and scrutinize the correspondence files.
4. Ensure that decision for writing off the debts has been taken by the appropriate authority.
5. The bad debts should be properly disclosed in Statement of Profit and Loss according to its materiality.
6. If provision for bad debts had already been made for bad debts, ensure that to the extent of actual bad debts written off, the provision is reversed.

6.8 – AUDIT OF CASH AT BANK & CASH IN HAND

Q.32 What procedures an auditor should adopt to test the authenticity of cash at bank.

Or

How will you verify the following: Bank Balances?

Answer: Verification of Bank Balances:

1. The auditor should advise the entity to send a letter to all its bankers to, directly confirm the balances to the auditor.
2. The auditor should examine the bank reconciliation statement prepared as on the last day of the year to identify cheques issued by the entity but not presented for payment, and cheques deposited but not credited in the bank account and their tracing in subsequent period.
3. The auditor should pay special attention to those items in the reconciliation statements which are outstanding for an unduly long period.
4. Where a large number of cheques has been issued/deposited in the last few days of the year, and a sizeable proportion of such cheques has subsequently remained unpaid/uncleared, this may indicate an intention of understating creditors/debtors or understating/overstating bank balances. In such a case, it may be appropriate for the auditor to obtain confirmations from the parties concerned, especially in respect of cheques involving large amounts. The auditor should also examine whether a reversal of the relevant entries would be appropriate under the circumstances.
5. In respect of fixed deposits, the relevant receipts/certificates, duly supported by bank advices, should be examined.

6. Remittances shown as being in transit should be examined with reference to their credit in the bank in the subsequent period.

7. Where material amounts are held in bank accounts which are blocked, e.g., in foreign banks with exchange control restrictions or any banks which are under moratorium or liquidation, the auditor should examine whether the relevant facts have been suitably disclosed in the financial statements.

8. Where the auditor finds that the number of bank accounts maintained by the entity is disproportionately large in relation to its size, the auditor should exercise greater care in satisfying himself about the genuineness of banking transactions and balances.

Q.33 Mention disclosure requirements of Bank Balances in the financial statements of a company.

Answer: Disclosure Requirements of Bank balances:

1. Cash and Cash Equivalents shall be classified as:
   - Balances with Bank
   - Cheques, Drafts on hand
   - Cash on hand
   - Others (specifying nature)

2. The following shall be shown separately:
   - Earmarked balances with bank.
   - Balances with bank held as margin money or security against borrowing, guarantees and other commitments.
   - Repatriation restrictions, if any, in respect of cash and bank balances.
   - Bank deposits with more than 12 months maturity.

Q.34 "No entry is passed for cheques received by the auditee on the last day of the year and not yet deposited with the bank". Give your comments and observations.

Answer: Cheques Received on the Last Day of Accounting Year:

- Many a times, cheques are received from the customers on the last day of the accounting year and there are chances that these cheques could not be deposited in the bank on the same day.
- Though in general, it is expected that all cheques should be deposited in the bank daily, but there may be a possibility that such cheques which are received particularly during the late hours could not be deposited in the bank.
- In such cases, it becomes important that such cheques should be properly accounted for to avoid any frauds and that the financial statements reflect a true and fair view. For this purpose, an effective internal control system needs to be ensured.
- It should be ensured that a list of such cheques is prepared in duplicate and a copy of the same has been sent to person controlling the trade receivables' ledger and a second copy is handed over to cashier along with the cheques received. The person who is controlling the trade receivables' ledger should ensure that proper accounting entries have been passed by crediting respective trade receivables' accounts.
- The balance of cheques-in-hand should also be disclosed along with the cash and bank balances in the financial statements.
Q.35
State any six important points to be examined by you, as an auditor, in verifying the correctness of bank balance of an Educational Institution which deposits all its collection/receipt in separate collection account of a bank.

Answer: Verification of Bank Balance of an Educational Institution:

For verifying the balances lying with bank in collection account, the auditor should adopt following procedure:

1. Compare the counterfoils of pay-in-slips with the entries in the ledger account.
2. Compare the entries in the ledger account with the pass book or bank statement.
3. Review the bank reconciliation statement for its correctness.
4. Scrutiny the subsequent period bank statement to ensure that items of reconciliation are subsequently cleared.
5. Check the casting, carry forwards and balancing of ledger account.
6. Obtain the balance confirmation certificate from the Bank.

Q.36
Comment on "The cash-book showed a huge cash balance on hand consistently throughout the year".

Answer: Maintenance of Huge Cash Balance:

"Guidance Note on Audit of Cash and Bank Balances" recommends that if, during the course of the audit, it comes to the attention of the auditor that the entity is consistently maintaining an unduly large balance of cash in hand, he may perform the following procedures:

1. He should carry out surprise verification of cash more frequently.
2. If the cash in hand is not in agreement with the balance as shown in the books, he should seek explanations from a senior official of the entity.
3. In case any material difference is not satisfactorily explained, the auditor should state this fact appropriately in his audit report.
4. He should satisfy himself regarding the necessity for such large balances having regard to the normal working requirements of the entity.
5. The entity may also be advised to deposit the whole or the major part of the cash balance in the bank at reasonable intervals.

Q.37
M, Statutory Auditor of ABC Ltd wants to verify cash on hand as on 31st March, 2016. The Management informs Mr. M. that it is not possible to cooperate, as cashier has been hospitalised. Advise Mr. M. on how to deal with the situation.

Answer: Limitation on Scope of Auditor

- As per "Guidance Note on Audit of Cash and Bank balances" the auditor should carry out physical verification of cash at the date of the balance sheet. However, if this is not feasible, physical verification may be carried out, on a surprise basis, at any time shortly before or after the date of the balance sheet. In the latter case, the auditor should examine whether the cash balance shown in the financial statements reconciles with the results of the physical verification after taking into account the cash receipts and cash payments between the date of the physical verification and the date of the balance sheet.

- In the present case, management refuses for physical verification as cashier has been hospitalised. This refusal amounts to limitation on scope of auditor, which warrant the auditor to express disclaimer of opinion or qualified opinion in his audit report depending upon the circumstances.

Conclusion: Non co-operation of ABC Limited will amount to limitation on scope of auditors and auditor may modify the report based on the circumstances.

6.9 - VERIFICATION OF LIABILITIES

Q.38 How will you vouch/verify: Borrowings from banks?

Answer: Verification of Borrowings from Banks:

1. Reconcile the balances in the overdraft or loan account with that shown in the bank statements.
2. Obtain a certificate from the bank showing the balance in the accounts as at the end of the year.
3. Certificate may also be obtained from the bank showing particulars of securities deposited with the bank as security for the loans or of the charge created on an asset and confirm that the same has been correctly disclosed and duly registered with ROC and recorded in the Register of charges.
4. Verify that the loan or draft has been raised by appropriate authority. In the case of a company, only the BOD is authorised to raise a loan or borrow from a bank.
5. Confirm, in the case of a company, that the conditions prescribed in Sec. 180 of the Companies Act, 2013 as regards the maximum amount of loan that the company can raise has not been contravened.
6. Ascertain the purpose for which loan has been raised and the manner in which it has been utilised and ensure that this has not prejudicially affected the entity.

Q.39 How will you vouch/verify: Bank Overdraft

6.10 - VERIFICATION OF CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

Q.45 Write a short note on: Contingent Liability.

Answer: Contingent Liability:

As per AS 29 "Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets" a contingent liability is:

(a) a possible obligation that arises from past events and the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the enterprise; or

(b) a present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognised because:

(i) it is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; or

(ii) a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation cannot be made.
Recognition Principle of Contingent Liabilities

- An enterprise should not recognise a contingent liability.
- A contingent liability is disclosed, unless the possibility of an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote.
- Contingent liabilities are assessed continually to determine whether an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits has become probable. If it becomes probable that an outflow of future economic benefits will be required for an item previously dealt with as a contingent liability, a provision is recognised in the financial statements of the period in which the change in probability occurs.

7. Ensure that proper disclosure is made of all the contingent liabilities as per the requirements of AS-29 and Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013.

6.11 - MISCELLANEOUS

Q.47 How will you vouch/verify: Floating Assets

Answer: Verification of Floating Assets:

- Floating assets are those assets which are acquired for resale with a view to earning profits or are those that come into existence during the processes of trade or manufacture. All those, in the normal course of business, are quickly convertible into cash, e.g., inventory, trade receivable, bills receivable, etc.
- These assets are valued either at cost or market value whichever is less.
- The term ‘cost’ refers to purchase price including duties and taxes, freight inwards and other expenditure directly attributable to acquisition less trade discount, rebates, duties drawbacks and subsidies, in the year in which they are accounted, whether immediate or deferred in respect of such purchase.
- The term ‘market value’ may either refer to “Net realisable value” or “the replacement cost”. Net Realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessarily to be incurred in order to make the sale. Replacement Cost refers to the price which would have to be paid for acquiring the same assets at the current market rate on the date of the Balance-sheet.
