L'ORMARINS QUEEN'S PLATE

SA's most elegant raceday gets the blue light

Punters, celebs and even jockeys donned their blue and white finery for the 151st running of the oldest and most elegant event on the SA racing calendar. The Style Lounge rocked, the Café Caprice tent seethed and the glitterati lapped it up in the Stud Club. Fine L'Ormarins wines, a vintage car display and a concert with Kongos, Spoek Mathambo and Tumi and the Volume added to the day's rich pageant. Artist Conor Mccreedy, who impressed everyone in his Peyman Umay bespoke suit with matching telephone ensemble, got GQ's nod as best-dressed man. GQ - CT
