

Echo Rug

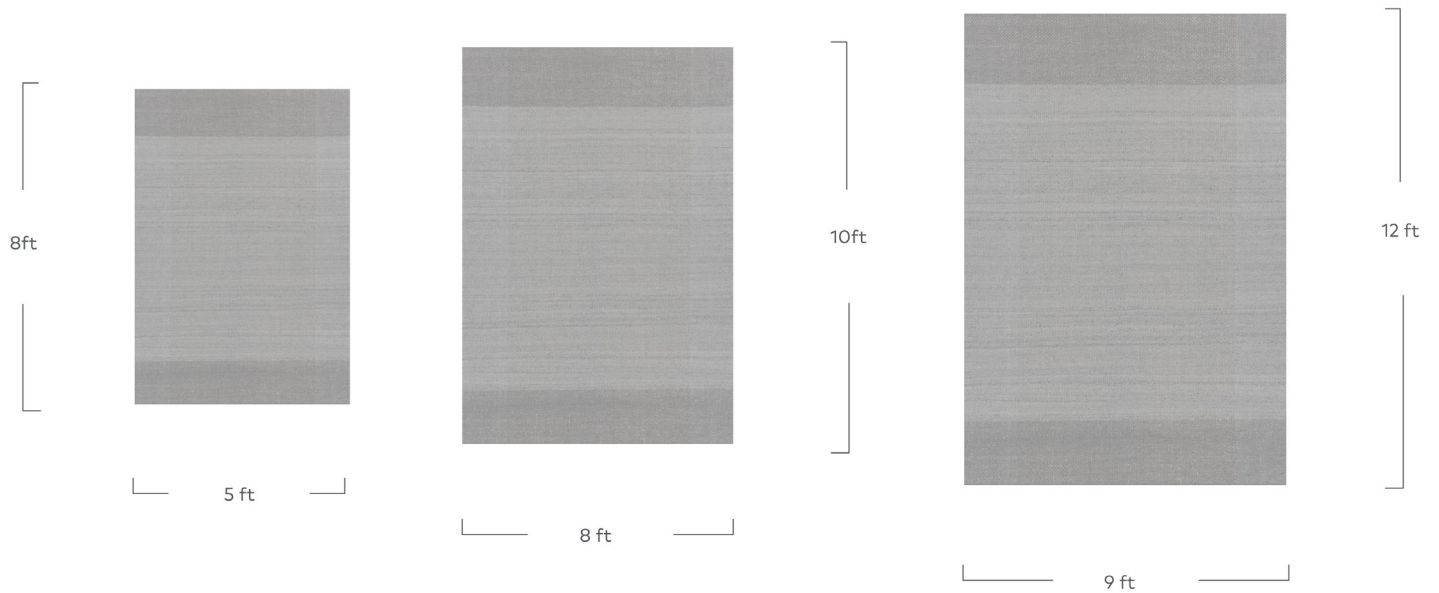

Fletcher

If a whisper of pattern and high-end craftsmanship is your goal, look no further than the Echo rug to complete your vision. Handwoven from a combination of wool and jute fibers, it features a flatweave design, with a low profile that makes it the ideal choice for a room filled with furniture and a bustle of activity. The versatile colorway - anchored in shades of gray - incorporate understated tonal variations that allow the floor covering to seamlessly integrate into your existing design scheme. Choose three different sizes for the perfect fit.

Design Trade Professionals: We aim to keep our designs in stock and ready to ship quickly for projects on a tight timeline. Designs may be customized with COM and alternate finishes (minimum quantities may apply). Visit guscontract.com for more information about our Trade & Contract programs.
