STYLE TIPS FOR THE HOLIDAYS

ARTICLE JORDAN BLAINE | PHOTOGRAPHY POPPI PHOTOGRAPHY

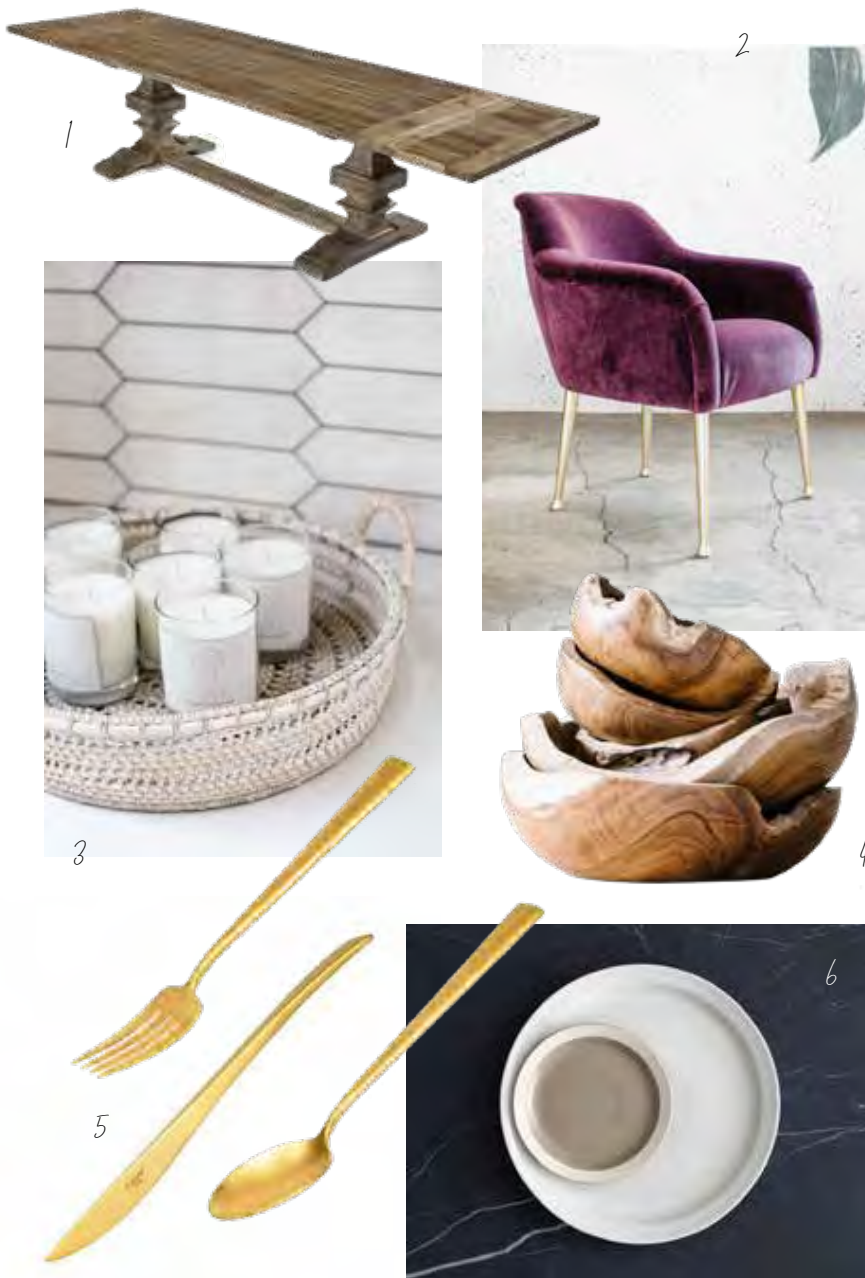

AS THE WEATHER CHANGES AND THE SEASON'S ICONIC COLORS ARE IN BLOOM, IT'S A PERFECT TIME TO TRANSITION YOUR HOME DECOR.

The holidays are even more incentive to align our homes with the seasonal change. While holidays provide inspiration for decorating, for some of us, interior decorating can feel daunting, and at times you may feel stuck.

Whether you plan on hosting, or you just want to make your home a little cozier, there are many transitional decorating options you can use as the seasons change; you just have to know the right places to look. We asked local eco-chic furniture company TREE to make some suggestions to take the stress out of decorating and create an inviting look for your home and your guests.

Every great host knows the details are what bring your entire event together. From the home scent upon entry to your table settings, your ideal seasonal look and hosting experience can be accomplished with minimal stress and maximum enjoyment.

nicole's tips on how to achieve the featured look:

› A HAPPY HOME

As the days get shorter and the nights draw in, autumn is the time to go within and reflect upon the year. Cooler temperatures mean more time spent indoors, and it's the perfect opportunity to consider what makes a happy home. Extend your heart and home to your family and friends with one of TREE's signature extendable tables this holiday season.

› AUTUMNAL ABUNDANCE

Layer your table with colorful, seasonal vegetables and fruits, the warmth of nature and comforting amber tones. Gather friends and family around an extendable table scattered with fallen leaves and acorns—the perfect excuse to put on your boots and take a walk with your loved ones!

› CONTRAST

A long, extendable dining table demands a little drama, however big or small you'd like. Create a bold contrast with plate colors, and add dimension with gold silverware and metallic accessories.
