

OPERATIONS MANAGER

SUPPORT OUR OPERATIONAL backbone (m/f – immediately)

REVOLUTIONIZING THE EUROPEAN HANDBAG MARKET

We are Buckle & Seam, the fastest growing direct-to-consumer bag brand in Europe. Located right in the center of Berlin we aim to make a difference in people's lives, be it for our customer, our manufacturers or the children's school that we support in Pakistan with 3% of our revenue. We are the odd one out in the industry. We do not outsource. We do it ourselves, as a team, here and abroad. With you we want to go the next step. Your combination of analytical and strategic mindset paired with a sense of humor will be an ideal fit to join our dynamic & international team.

YOUR ROLE

- Functional end-to-end ownership of international business operations & controlling activities
- Responsibility of day to day operational tasks and guided implementation of strategic local and global operational projects
- KPI controlling and reporting with consequent decision making
- Audit and streamlining of current activities & library of best practices.

YOUR PROFILE

- 1-3 years working experience in logistics, finance, controlling, business development
- Microsoft Office and data base experience
- Data driven, self-starter with experience in process management, reporting, and project execution.
- German native or at least fluent (B2), and english proficiency

PERKS

- High degree of responsibility from day one & steep learning curve
- Close interaction with the founders and the international team
- Competitive salary, free bags & an amazing & sunflooded office in the center of Berlin
