

ENTREPRENEUR IN RESIDENCE - INTERN HELP US SCALE 10x NOW

REVOLUTIONIZING THE EUROPEAN HANDBAG MARKET

We are Buckle & Seam, the fastest growing direct-to-consumer bag brand in Europe. Located right in the center of Berlin we aim to make a difference in people's lives, be it for our customer, our manufacturers or the children's school that we support in Pakistan with 3% of our revenue. We are the odd one out in the industry. We do not outsource. We do it ourselves, as a team, here and abroad. With you we want to go the next step. Your combination of analytical and strategic mindset paired with a sense of humor will be an ideal fit to join our dynamic & international team.

YOUR ROLE

- End-to-end ownership of strategic projects for direct value creation and / or optimization
- Research & analysis of new business & market opportunities
- Fulfilling interim management & operational positions
- Direct interaction with and reporting to the founders who will mentor the projects' and your personal growth & success.

YOUR PROFILE

- Student or recent graduate with strong academic record in economics or another business-related degree
- Self-starter with energy that has already proven to drive projects ahead independently
- You are looking for tangible results & want to actively drive change
- You are fluent in at least 2 languages

PERKS

- High degree of responsibility and a steep learning curve
- Close work together with Founding Managers
- Competitive salary, free bags & an amazing office in the center of Berlin
