

PRODUCT DEVELOPMENT - INTERN

CREATE THE BASIS FOR OUR SUCCESS (m/f – immediately)

REVOLUTIONIZING THE EUROPEAN HANDBAG MARKET

We are Buckle & Seam, the fastest growing direct-to-consumer bag brand in Europe. Located right in the center of Berlin we aim to make a difference in people's lives, be it for our customer, our manufacturers or the children's school that we support in Pakistan with 3% of our revenue. We are the odd one out in the industry. We do not outsource. We do it ourselves, as a team, here and abroad. With you we want to go the next step. Your combination of analytical and strategic mindset paired with a sense of humor will be an ideal fit to join our dynamic & international team.

YOUR ROLE

- Support of the product management team
- Role may also include product design as well as procurement to give you 360° on the product development
- Supplier research & communication across borders
- High level of responsibility from the beginning
- Trend forecasting and competitors analysis
- Quality control oversight and coordination

YOUR PROFILE

- Final year or recent graduate of product development, management or textile engineering with previous work-experience
- Strong communicator in German & English
- Adobe Illustrator and excel proficient
- You are eager to learn, a multitasker and receptive to feedback

PERKS

- High degree of responsibility from day one & steep learning curve
- Close interaction with the founders and the international team
- Competitive salary, free bags & an amazing & sunflooded office in the center of Berlin
