

Greenhouse Tech / Farm Hand

Job Description

Introduction

AquaTerra Farm raises hydroponic, gourmet produce (lettuces, leafy greens, herbs, tomatoes, squash, microgreens, etc.), and Grass-fed/Grass-finished Beef using responsible, realistic and sustainable practices.

Duties

The duties outlined below can change based on need, timing, etc.

- Greenhouse/Hydroponic duties (~90%)
  - Seeding
  - Transplanting
  - Cleaning
  - Harvesting
  - Packaging
  - Maintaining Systems
  - Pruning
- Grounds duties – mowing, trimming, fence checks/repairs, etc.
- Misc. Duties – cattle handling, maintenance (equipment, tools, buildings, etc.), cleaning, projects, sales (farmers market, pickup point, order prep) etc.

Expectations

- Physically active (on your feet) and able to lift 25+ pounds multiple times per day
- Good Communicator – speaking, listening and suggestions at appropriate times
- Ability to Learn – tasks, tools, equipment, procedures, etc.
- Work Style - self managing, productive, add value, stay busy
- Documentation – Logging, forms, etc.
- Basic Computer Skills
- Drug-Free Work Environment (drug testing)
- 1099 Associate (contract labor)
- No benefits at this time

Preferred Skills / Experience / Opportunities

Safety is first and foremost! If an associate does not feel safe in performing a task or has questions, they are expected to say something immediately. If an associate has an area of interest, please let management know. Additional tasks that can be performed on the farm include:

- Mechanical - equipment, engines (small, large, gas, diesel), welding, etc.
- Equipment – ATVs, zero turn lawn mower, tractor/attachments (sprayer, spreader, bushhog, rake, grapple, bucket, scraping, backhoe, etc.)
- Power tools - drills, saws, chainsaws, trimmers, pneumatic (air tools), etc.
- Construction - painting, carpentry, electrical, solar, etc.
- Livestock/Pastures - Cattle, fencing, planting, fertilizing,