

THIS MONTH

The hottest buys to hit the market.

Rohit Kamra: The Modern Maharaja

Menswear couturier Rohit Kamra has seamlessly spun Rajasthani folklore and time-honoured traditions of the royalty into his most recent collection. Fittingly titled The Modern Maharaja, the range makes generous use of whites, beiges, creams and ivory hues, with only a smattering of charcoal blacks. The line sees traditional techniques such as beadwork and mirror work lying perfectly enmeshed in legendary styles such as angrakhas, bandhgalas, achkans, etc. With every piece boasting the calibre of an heirloom keepsake, the collection “illustrates the label’s long-standing commitment to heritage.”

Available exclusively at: rohitkamra.com and Rohit Kamra stores across Jaipur, Pune and Mumbai

Price: ₹18,000 onwards

Nine Plus: Spring Summer 2019 collection

Nine Plus is a boundary-blurring footwear brand when it comes to age — it caters to everyone from the small to the elderly. With the launch of their Spring Summer 2019 collection, they have set their foot in the door, quite literally. Complete with a contemporary colour palette and a durable outer fabric, the range is ideal for navigating maze-like urban cityscapes.

Available at: Multi-brand outlets across select Indian states

Price: ₹579 onwards

Organic Riot: An Honest Movement

Organic Riot claims to craft products which are as kind to the environment as they are to the skin. Its ingredients are sourced from farms and rainforests to mountainous regions from across the globe. The result? A range of products — formulated with plant-based oils and ECOCERT® approved ingredients — like the ZAP serum, the DAZZLE potion, the Spotlight cream and the Smog-Block moisturiser, which combat pimples, pigmentation, dryness and polluted skin respectively.

Available at: Nykaa.com and organicriot.com
