

Jamie Leong, Jaki Yermian, Sarah Murphy

*E*spousing an understated confidence honed from her studies at the Design Institute of San Diego, and matched by years of success within the field, both commercial and residential, Jaki Yermian strives to blend the client's wishes in creating a venue that speaks to beauty, function, and lifestyle. Repeat clientele and their enthusiastic referrals have been the mainstay of her business these many years. JY Design Interiors new studio in Leucadia off of Highway 101 is the most recent example of her successes. By appointment only, the studio offers clients access to a wealth of samples and catalogs, enabling them to newly discover that perfect match for their abode and their lifestyle, all in step with Jaki's refined guidance.
