Future plc's AV Technology brand is pleased to announce its Best of Show winners from InfoComm International 2018. This Best of Show list, from an exhibition of thousands of solutions showcased by more than 950 manufacturers, represents outstanding achievements in product development. Six AV professionals, including CTS-certified technology managers and AV/IT engineers, judged each product live on the show floor on days one and two of InfoComm.

"This year's strong field of entries is emblematic of the current outpouring of innovation in our industry," said Matt Pruznick, content director of AV Technology. "The bounty of these companies' engineering, research and development, and user design efforts was on full display on the show floor, and narrowing the field down to a select group of winners was not an easy task. I offer my heartiest congratulations to the winning companies, and look forward to seeing how their products help technology managers transform their facilities over the coming years."

The enthusiastic response to AV Technology's Best of Show program reflects the growing interest of technology managers and end users in InfoComm, according to Adam Goldstein, executive vice president at Future plc. "We're very pleased to see tech managers continuing to engage with both the InfoComm show and our publications," he said.
