

Peerless-AV® to Showcase Innovative Workplace Communication Solutions at CorpComm Expo 2016

Digital signage expert welcomes attendees to discuss communication strategy at Booth 201C

CHICAGO – November 15, 2016 – Peerless-AV®, the leader in innovative digital signage and audio and video solutions, is pleased to announce its showcase at CorpComm Expo 2016. A founding partner of CorpComm, Peerless-AV will be utilizing its booth (#201C) as a relaxing atmosphere for show attendees to sit down and enjoy refreshments while discussing their communication strategy and new AV solutions with Peerless-AV experts. The booth will also feature a variety of solutions ideal for corporate communications.

Solutions on display will include Peerless-AV's award-winning line of kiosk enclosures, including a Portrait Kiosk (KIPC546), a Landscape Kiosk (KILH542), and a Small Format Kiosk (KIL522). These floor-standing enclosures offer elegance unprecedented in the kiosk sector, with lean frames and a small footprint along with a robust feature set.

For corporate communication applications in particular, Peerless-AV's kiosks offer numerous functions, such as wayfinding, sharing employee news, and more – streamlining processes and improving employee engagement. To further help corporations customize solutions to fit their needs, Peerless-AV offers its KioskBuilder™, an option for companies looking to put a personal, signature touch on their solutions.

Show attendees will also have the opportunity to meet with Peerless-AV's Vice President of Global Business Development, Brian McClimans, at the "Networking Ice Breaker" today at 9 a.m.
