

Peerless-AV® & Almo® Showcase UV2™ Outdoor TV at Architectural Digest Home Design Show in Booth #269

NEW YORK CITY – March 19, 2015 – At the Architectural Digest Home Design Show, Peerless-AV®, the leader in digital signage and AV solutions, is partnering with Almo® to showcase the UV2™ Outdoor TV at Booth #269.

Designed for outdoor entertaining, the award-winning Peerless-AV® UV2 Outdoor TV is ideal for homeowners looking to give customers a quality outdoor TV experience. An all-season solution for outdoor entertainment and living, the TV features an IP65 rating, making it water and dust resistant. Thanks to an integrated thermal management system, the TV can operate in severe temperatures ranging from -24 degrees Fahrenheit to 124 degrees Fahrenheit.

The Peerless-AV® UV2 Outdoor TV is maintenance-free with no filters needing to be cleaned and/or replaced. The TV is constructed of aluminum and features anti-reflective impact-resistant safety glass, a bright picture, and 1080p.

The Peerless-AV® UV2 Outdoor TV is currently available through Almo Corporation.
